III. The President shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Conference; but, in case of such an appeal, the question shall be taken without debate.

IV. He shall appoint all committees not otherwise especially ordered by the Conference; but any member may decline serving on more than one committee at the same time.

V. The Secretary shall keep a Journal of all the proceedings, and shall have the same, when approved, printed with the other Minutes of the session, and a copy properly bound and authenticated as the official record of the Conference. He shall take charge of the Journals and other papers of the Conference, preserve them with care, and suffer no person to take a copy of any papers during the interval of the Conference, except with the consent of the Conference.

VI. All motions introduced by any member of the Conference shall be reduced to writing, if the President, Secretary, or any member request it.

VII. No motion shall be considered unless seconded.

VIII. When a motion is made and seconded, or a report presented and read by the Secretary, or stated by the President, it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before decision or amendment.

IX. No new motion shall be made until the matter under consideration shall be disposed of, which may be by adoption or rejection, unless one of the following motions intervene, namely: to recommit, to postpone to a given time, to lay on the table, or to amend, and these motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed.

X. When any member is about to speak in debate, or to deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall rise from his seat and respectfully address himself to the President.

XI. No member shall be interrupted when speaking, except by the President to call him to order when he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the President to the subject, when he deems a speaker out of order; and any member may explain if he thinks himself misrepresented.

XII. No member shall speak more than twice on the same question, nor more than fifteen minutes at any time, without leave of the Conference; nor shall any member speak more than once until every one desiring to speak shall have spoken.

XIII. When any member of the Conference shall think that the discussion of a subject has been sufficiently protracted, it shall be in order for him to move that the vote on the main question be now taken, which motion, if seconded, shall be immediately put; and, if two-thirds of the members present sustain the motion, the vote shall be taken on the question pending without further debate.

XIV. It shall be in order for any member to call for the yeas and nays on any question before the Conference; and, if the call be sustained by thirteen members, the vote thereon shall be taken by yeas and nays.

XV. When any motion has been passed, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration.

XVI. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar at the time when such question is put by the President, except by leave of the Conference, when such member shall have been necessarily absent.

XVII. Every member who shall be within the bar at the time the question is put shall give his vote, unless, for special reasons, the Conference excuses him.

XVIII. No member of the Conference shall object to the passage of a brother's character on questions implicating his moral standing, or administration, without giving him previous written notice of his intention, and the grounds of it, unless by consent of the Conference, when, in his judgment, the circumstances justify the omission.

XIX. No member shall absent himself from the session of Conference, without leave, unless he be sick or unable to attend.

STANDING RESOLUTIONS OF THE CONFERENCE.

I. RELATING TO THE CONFERENCE EXAMINATIONS.

Resolved, 1. That it shall be the duty of the several Committees of Examination, and of the classes to be examined, to meet in the place appointed for the session of this Conference on the day preceding the opening of the Conference, at 9 o'clock A. M.

Resolved, 2. That the examinations should be completed and the reports of the several committees prepared before the Conference session opens.

Resolved, 3. That the several Committees of Examination be instructed to examine no candidates after the commencement of the Conference without specific directions so to do by the Conference itself.

Resolved, 7. That when a candidate fails to appear before the committee for examination, he shall not, at an ensuing session of the Conference, appear before the committee of two or more years without the special permission of the Conference.

Resolved, 8. That the names of those preachers who are not present in time to meet their engagements as members of the Examining Committee, or of the classes to be examined, be called in open Conference, and they be required to give the reasons for their delinquency.

Resolved, 10. That the examination of local preachers for Orders shall be held on Friday of the Conference Session, at 1 o'clock P. M.

II. RELATING TO THE REPORTING OF STATISTICS.

That a Treasurer and two assistants be elected annually to serve at the ensuing session; that they shall provide suitable envelopes and have them distributed, with the statistical blanks, to the pastors; that on the first day of the session they shall receive from each pastor these envelopes, with the money for the different Church collections, and enter the amount thereof on a proper tally-sheet; and shall return to the Chairmen of the several committees a duplicate sheet, if asked for, together with a check for the aggregate amount called for by the original tally-sheet, less the expense of printing, which shall be deducted from the aggregate collections of the Conference.

Resolved, 2. That the names of those preachers who do not report their statistics and pay over all collections the first day of the session of Conference be called in open Conference, and they be required to give the reasons for their delinquency.

III. RELATING TO THE APPORTIONMENT OF MISSIONARY ASSESSMENTS.

Resolved, 1. That within one month after the issuing of the circular from the Mission-rooms, designating the amount of missionary money to be raised by our Conference, the Presiding Elders of the Conference shall meet at some place agreed on, and apportion the same among the several Districts of the Conference, according to the ability and membership in each District.

Resolved, 2. That each Presiding Elder, within two weeks after the above-named meeting, with the advice of the District meeting of the preachers of the District, shall apportion the amount to be raised by the District among the several Charges thereof, according to the ability of the members therein.

Resolved, 3. That each Presiding Elder shall immediately notify each preacher of his District of the amount to be raised by his Charge.

IV. RELATING TO CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS.

Resolved, 1. That all papers relating to the support of Conference Claimants shall be referred, without reading, to the Board of Stewards; and the report of the Stewards, when presented, shall lie over for one day, to allow corrections or suggestions, before final action is taken on it.

Resolved, 2. That in order to prevent conflicts respecting the distribution of the Conference Funds, the claimants shall appear before the Board of Stewards, and their action shall be final.

Resolved, 3. That when the report of the Board of Stewards is read before the Conference, each preacher in Charge shall be required to state the reason of any deficiency that may be reported for his Charge.

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Conference that no transfers be made to it without a vote, whenever practicable, of the Conference, or by mutual transfer.

The following resolutions of thanks to the Pastors of Trinity and Grace churches, the Trustees, and Bishop Andrews, were adopted by a rising vote:

Our Conference session is about to close, and we regret to go, for we have had a pleasant stay in this sprightly and flourishing city. Our entertainment has never been more hospitable and cordial. Our homes have been delightful and cheerful, and we hope that our brief sojourn is not without helpful impression and inspiration to those whose company we have enjoyed. Our thanks are particularly due to the pastor of Trinity church, the Rev. Andrew J. Fish, and Rev. Dwight R. Cook, for the minute and magnanimous care we have received at their hands; and we will not omit pleasant reference to the Trustees and to others who have aided Brother Fish in the discharge of his kindly offices towards us.

We shall hopefully await the opportunity to repay our debt to the sister churches of Lima for the privilege of preaching the gospel in their pulpits.

We are pleased to have, as the President of this session of our Conference, Bishop E. G. Andrews; and while our minds and expectations have been variously influenced, at times, in reference to the appointments, yet we are glad our appointments are so good, and that we will carry away the helpful memory of his practical and useful words in address and sermon; and we invite him to come back whenever he can.

N. B. C. Love, in behalf of the Conference, through Bishop Andrews, presented Rev. Andrew J. Fish with a handsome set of "The History of the Fathers," by Canon Farrar, as an expression of their appreciation of his service in their entertainment.

REPORTS.

I.

From the Presiding Elders.

I. BELLEFONTAINE DISTRICT.

Bellefontaine District is now composed of twenty pastoral Charges. Without delay or hindrance, the several pastors of this District were upon their respective fields of labor and at their work. All were permitted to thus continue uninterruptedly through the whole of the past year, except the following named: Rev. J. M. Kelly was taken sick in the early part of the year, and for weeks suffered from lung complaint and anxiety over his work; of the latter he was, however, soon relieved by the coming of Rev. Frank Stanton, from the Ohio Wesleyan University, to supply his work. This work he did most successfully and acceptably, both in the regular appointments and in revival services, adding many to the Church. No sooner was Rev. J. M. Kelly restored to health, than the violent sickness of Rev. S. O. Young, at Belle Center, made it necessary that his work be supplied for the balance of the year. To this work Rev. Frank Stanton consented to go, and he was accordingly appointed. It was a sad day when Rev. S. O. Young met the people of his Charge and bade them good-bye and resigned his work. Why a well-educated, competent man should have, while young, to retire and die, while so many worthless ones live and enjoy good health, is a perplexing question. Bro. Stanton filled this Charge until the close of the year with great acceptability and popularity, and though recommended by his quarterly and District Conferences to the traveling connection, he was returned to the Ohio Wesleyan University to complete his education for future usefulness. The mother of Rev. H. B. Swartz died, the past year, in the parsonage at Versailles, whither she had come to live with her son, whom she loved, and had educated for the ministry. She was an elect lady, a devout Christian, and died in the full assurance of a better inheritance.

La grippe afflicted many of our ministsrs and members the past year to such a degree that it militated not only against attendance upon Church, but in some instances against health and life. Because of cold and late rains in the Spring, and long and dry intervals the past Summer, the season has not been the most conducive to agricultural success, and therefore, financial plans have been worked in the face of discouraging circumstances not the most easy of control, yet the reports of the pastors will show that diligence and perseverance have been brought into requisition upon every pastoral Charge of the District. Detailed and itemized reports I shall leave to the pastors to make, while I address myself to more general matters.

As to the temporal status of the District I am glad to be able to report improvement. In Kenton, we are building perhaps the most unique and tasteful church edifice of the Conference. It is a stone structure, Berea, Grafton and brown Killbuck stone being used in its construction. To persons not yet members of the Church we are most largely indebted for money and attention given to this much needed improvement. As Christ "approved and commended the Centurian who built a synagogue for the people," so would we commend those who have stood by the pastor in all the arduous work of so heavy an enterprise. The debt upon the Bellefontaine church, so recently erected, has been mostly liquidated. The same may be said of the new parsonages at Sidney and Quincy. New parsonages have been built, or purchased, or are now in process of erection at the following named places: Jackson Center, Zanesville, Belle Center. Roundhead has purchased a fine house now occupied by the pastor's family; besides this the Trustees purchased the only saloon in the place and turned it into other and better uses, and enlarged the parsonage lot by the addition of the saloon lot. The Ansonia parsonage has been reconstructed, and the new pastor here will find a nice house for his family. Port Jefferson and Huntsville parsonages have been materially improved. Bradford and St. Paris each rent homes for their pastors, but what is paid for house rent ought to go to the support of the ministry, and the money thus paid out is more than the interest on the money necessary to secure a good parsonage, hence we have urged these changes to secure parsonages.

The matter of ministerial support comes under the head of temporalties, and as to this feature of District interest, I report, that in answer to the questions asked in all Quarterly Conferences, viz.: "What is the financial plan adopted by the Stewards?" and "have the directions of the Discipline for raising supplies for ministerial support been carried out?" the following plan has been generally adopted, and where it has been faithfully worked, success has followed. After the aggregate amount necessary has been obtained and apportioned to the societies, the Quarterly Conferences have elected one of the Stewards as Treasurer in each society, whose business it is to keep account of all moneys raised for the purpose, including the names of individuals, the dates, and amounts of their payments. The Recording Stewards keep an account with these Treasurers, and these Treasurers make use of leaders, Stewards or collectors, any or all of them necessary for the collection of funds. This plan expedites the business of the Quarterly Conference, simplifies the bookkeeping of the Secretary, and affords a plan whereby the Stewards can, at any time, give an account to the societies or Quarterly Conferences as to the status of their treasury. Where this plan is worked we have best success in raising supplies.

Love feasts and class meetings—how to make these a success is a question. In the more rural parts an hour and a half, the Disciplinary limit as to time, often proves to be too short a time, and these meetings are largely attended and generally participated in by both young and old. In the larger towns, the question as to where to put the love feast and on what hour, becomes troublesome, because it is assumed that the Sunday School would spoil the love feast, or the love feast spoil the Sunday School. Class meetings are more poorly attended in towns than in the country, and class leaders make more regular and better reports, to the Quarterly Conferences, in the country than in the larger towns. This ought not so to be, and how to remedy the evil we are trying to conclude.

The Sunday School work of the District is, as a general thing, well done, and a growing attendance of children upon the preaching service and of adult age upon the Sunday School is observable. Classes for the instruction of children are upon the increase in number, and children who attend upon the Supper of the Lord proportionately increase in numbers as the rules respecting their instruction are observed. Two classes of probationers are found upon many Church records, one composed of the baptized children, the other of the adult persons having recently joined. The Epworth League is here brought into requisition.

As to our Church literature, I am glad to be able to report that, to my knowledge, no Sunday School of this District uses other literature than that of our own publication, and the pastors make commendable effort in giving wider circulation to our Church papers.

The apportionment of the amounts to be raised for benevolences have been duly made by the District Conference, in which work the laymen take quite as much interest as do the pastors, and in the literary features of the programmes they evince a deep interest also, preparing essays and conducting discussions with increasing interest. The bringing in of laymen thus into the work of the District Conference has a healthful influence, not only upon them as individuals, but through them, upon their charges, in the departments of Sunday School, class leaders and Stewards' work.

Prohibition under the Dow Law reigns not only in Bellefontaine but throughout all of Logan county, except in one town, and here the saloon will soon have to go, as the voice of the people in recent elections clearly indicates. Drinking in Logan county is done under discouraging circumstances, and it therefore grows beautifully less as time passes. Business is not injured, more people attend Church, money is saved in every way, and Bellefontaine Church pays more money to benevolences than any other in the Conference, has a larger congregation and more of an attendance upon prayer and class meetings, and the average man of the town is a better style of a man than can be found where whiskey and beer are allowed to flow, even for the magnanimous and patriotic purposes of State and national revenue. On the question of Temperance Reform, Bellefontaine District sends greeting to the other Districts of the Conference, hoping that soon the average man within the Central Ohio Conference bounds may be able to see that the barrel of municipal, State and national finance can never be filled by pouring in at the spigot end, while waste is allowed at the bung-hole, and let all the people say "Amen!"

L. A. BELT.

II. DEFIANCE DISTRICT.

IN submitting this, my last report of Defiance District, I desire first of all to record my gratitude and thanksgiving to the Great Head of the Church for His providential care over me through all the six years of anxiety, toil and exposure in the prosecution of my work on the District.

Soon after Conference, I organized a Grelton Circuit and put A. Wilford in charge, making 31 Charges in all in the District.

The ministers of the District were early at their posts of duty, and being well qualified for their work everything promised well for a most successful year, but the excessive rains and almost impassable roads of the Winter, with many of the preachers and people disabled with the la grippe, revival meetings in the country Charges were almost impossible, yet withal we had some gracious revivals and large ingatherings to the Church.

As a rule, the Churches and Charges are in a healthy spiritual condition and enjoying general peace and a fair degree of prosperity, giving encouraging attendance upon the means of grace and the sacraments of the Church.

There is a growing interest and earnestness in regard to the welfare of the young committed to the care of the Church.

The Sunday Schools are growing in loyalty to the provisions of the Discipline and our denominational methods.

The patience and staying qualities of preachers and loyal members of the Church have been severely taxed in some of the Churches to withstand the persistent efforts of troublesome and often irresponsible persons, to foist outside literature and so-called "Union Machinery" upon the Sunday Schools.

Most of the schools observed Children's Day, and many of them made Easter a special missionary day.

We have had to contend with a troublesome opposition in organizing the schools into Missionary Societies, but we are making decided progress on all of these lines.

Twelve Epworth Leagues have been organized in the District, which are fast bringing our young people into line in all our Church work and exerting a salutary influence over the young in and out of the Church. A District League Convention was held August 18 and 19, at Napoleon, under the direction of Rev. T. H. Campbell, the District Secretary.

There is a growing loyalty both as to Sunday School literature and the general periodicals and publications of our own Church, which is demonstrated in the fact that the lists of Advocates taken is growing largely every year and the increasing familiarities of our people in the general workings of the Church.

Financially we have not yet reached the millennial age.

The open Winter caused almost an entire estople to the timber business, closing up factories and throwing hundreds of men and teams out of employment.

Though we have passed the "Hoop-pole Age," the vast timber industry which covers nearly everything in wood, from the huge saw log drawn by ten or twenty oxen to the toothpick carried in the vest pocket, in Northwestern Ohio, brings employment to hundreds, and bread to thousands of our people.

Settled roads, activity in the woods, and running factories had scarcely come until the drouth of Summer began to menace the agricultural interests, causing alarm among our farmers.

This combination of adverse conditions gave me great alarm for a time lest the preachers should suffer great loss in their salaries, and the benevolent collections of the Church fall far short of the amount asked for.

But the heroic efforts of the preachers and the self-sacrificing giving of the laymen have brought success beyond our expectations.

By a hand to hand fight with financial depression I think we shall be able to keep the benevolent contributions on the upward grade, and show at least a slight advance over last year.

The amounts asked for by the Church were all apportioned to the Charges early in the year, and the preachers have zealously labored to raise the amounts apportioned to their Charges.

If our Financial Secretaries who only touch the Conferences and wealthy Churches of our connection had an omniscient eye to see these preachers on rural Charges as they traversed the country, and invade impoverished homes collecting money for the Church, it would increase their appreciation of the earnest, honest efforts of the ministry and liberality of the laity of the Church.

Most of the salaries are well paid up, but embarrassing deficiencies exist in a few of the Charges, to the standing reproach of those wealthy members who are only paying from five to fifteen dollars a year to the preacher, and that too often paid in produce above the market price, while the preacher is serving the Church on a meager salary.

No other class of men on earth are doing as much work to better the condition of humanity on as small pay and as few thanks from men as ministers of the gospel.

Church building and the cancellation of old church debts have kept pace with other Church interests. The old debt on the parsonage at Grand Rapids, Brother St. Clair informs me, is nearly all paid and provided for, and many smaller debts on churches and parsonages in the District have been paid, until our church property is nearly free from debt, and a large portion of it well insured.

A large amount of improvement, such as carpeting and painting churches and parsonages, has been done mostly under the direction of the ladies. The parsonage at Napoleon has been raised, and a good wall and cellar put under it, a nice veranda built in front, and painting and papering done, to the great convenience and satisfaction of Brother Campbell and his excellent wife.

A comfortable parsonage has been bought at Sherwood, which has been occupied by Brother Bailey, the pastor, the most of the year.

The church at Hector, which is a beautiful frame house, with the pews nicely cushioned, altar and pulpit nicely carpeted, was dedicated early in the Winter. Two beautiful memorial windows have been placed in this church in memory and honor of the late Hector C. Havemyer, of New York, who provided in his will for its erection. Under the same provisions, by the direction of Mr. Thrall, a beautiful parsonage has been built and furnished throughout and placed at the disposal of the Church, to be occupied by the Methodist preacher living in Hector. This I presume is the best furnished preacher's home in this Conference.

The church at Huntstown is finished and occupied, but they are waiting for a more promising outlook financially before dedicating it.

The church at Blue Creek is up and will soon be finished and ready for dedication. A good sized respectable frame church has been bought at Continental from another denomination, which will be sufficient for our Society at that place for the present. Also a little church at Cecil, which serves the purpose for the present.

The church at Oakwood, which is to cost two thousand dollars, is up and inclosed and paid for so far as they have gone, but the society may be compelled for the want of means to rest a time where it is.

The church at Deshler has been rebuilt at a cost of twelve hundred dollars, all of which has been paid for but about one hundred dollars, which is amply provided for. A payment also of one hundred dollars has been made on the parsonage, which is occupied by Brother Baumgardener, the pastor.

A balance has been raised and paid on the parsonage at Melrose, and the property deeded to the Church.

The ladies of Defiance Church have recarpeted the church throughout and otherwise improved it.

We have held two interesting District Conferences. Secretary C. C. McCabe was present at our June Conference, and by his eloquent addresses and soul-stirring songs, inspired the preachers to greater activity, and the people to increased liberality in the Missionary cause.

I held my first quarterly meeting of the year the first Sabbath after the close of Conference, and have held in person or by proxy one hundred and twenty-four in all during the year, closing up my year's work September 22.

I have not missed by sickness, nor been absent from the District, a Sabbath during the year.

Miss Mary K. Hardy, District Secretary of the W. F. M. Society, will report over $461 from the District, and Mrs. E. Squire, District Secretary of the W. H. M. Society, will make an encouraging report for the Home work.

I have refused all calls to dedicate churches and other public work outside of the District and within the District unless coupled with quarterly meeting, giving my entire time and strength to the quarterly meetings. I have gone to my quarterly meetings through storms and sunshine, through mud and dust, and through all God has wondrously protected and sustained me, and the preachers and people have kindly received and helped me.

Several of my former pastoral Charges are included in the District, enabling me to renew former acquaintances, some of which extend back to 1855; persons whose marriage I solemnized then are parent and grand-parents now; homes which I entered then with their occupants still remain, though the fathers and mothers may have lost some of their youthful vigor, their faith in God and love for his Church have not decreased; their sons and daughters have come to the front in the Church to bear its burdens when the fathers and mothers fall asleep.

Several of the pastors and their families have passed through affliction, but through a merciful providence all have come down through the toils and exposures of the year without a break in the pastoral ranks, by death or otherwise.

No more faithful, efficient and devoted ministers of Christ can be found in any District or Conference than are found in charge of the Circuits and stations in Defiance District. They have been kind and helpful to me personally, often sacrificing their own ease and comfort to enhance mine, and to contribute to the general good of the Church.

We have between twenty-five and thirty local ministers in the District, many of whom are ready to preach whenever an opening occurs, but some of whom rarely honor the license the Church has given them by the exercise of their gifts.

The ministers in Defiance District are not only loyal to the doctrine and usages of the church they serve, but with this great Church behind them, with the courage of their convictions, they have lifted their voice against the sins of the age, chief among which is the infamous rum traffic which is the menace of Christ's kingdom and good government, and on their knees before God in his temples and in the homes of his children, they have pledged their pulpits, their platforms and ballots to its overthrow, and their faith in God and his truth assures them of its speedy and eternal annihilation.

Rev. Martin Perkey, Henry A. Brown, Cornelius C. Weaner, John Poucher and William H. Taylor, are Superannuated members of the Conference within the District. Of these, Rev. William H. Taylor has been summoned on high, and sweetly fell asleep in Jesus at his home in Bryan, Ohio, Sept. 5, 1890, in the 65th year of his age. I preached his funeral sermon to a large and sympathizing congregation, assisted in the services by Rev. G. H. Priddy, Pastor; Rev. John Poucher, Rev. H. J. Keister, Rev. W. V. Marsh and Rev. William Culp, members of the Conference, and Rev. Dr. Dogget, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Bryan. Brother Taylor entered the Conference in 1851 and did a number of years of Effective work, receiving many substantial members into the Church within the bounds of this District and elsewhere as the fruit of his ministry.

Disease contracted in the Mexican War gradually developed until he was compelled to ask a Superannuated relation, since which time he has resided in Bryan, where he died as he lived, trusting in God, and surrounded by many friends and no enemies.

His devoted wife, who always found her greatest earthly pleasure in contributing to his personal comfort, and their two sons will greatly miss him, but they now find great comfort in reflecting upon his pure life and peaceful death, sorrowing not as those who have no hope.

Rev. Father Taneyhill, the father of our Conference Secretary, a Superannuated member of the Central Pennsylvania Conference, has resided in Bryan for many years as loving as St. John, and full of years, and of the Holy Ghost, he is cheerfully and hopefully waiting to be gathered with the fathers.

In leaving the District, suffer this word of exhortation, dear brethren:

1. Resolve to be good pastors.

The observations of fourteen years as Presiding Elder, hearing complaints of the people and reasons for a change of pastors have forced the conclusion in my own mind the failure to " visit from house to house," as we promised at the bar of the Conference to do, is the cause of the loss of the salary and sympathy of the people, and a more potent factor in the removal of preachers before the legal limit than all other things combined. All classes want to see their pastor in their own home; all Churches, rich and poor, say to the Bishop, give us a good pastor.

2. Resolve to be true to each other.

Preceding and succeeding each other as we do, brings us under the greatest obligations to help, not hinder each other in our work.

The cold, indifferent reception, prejudice which takes months to remove, heart aches which cause sleepness nights, too often may be traced to the unkind, indiscreet words of a predecessor. See to it, brethren, that your best friend shall be the friend of your successor; that the hand last to let go of yours shall be first to grasp his hand. And the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ keep you all unto eternal life. S. L. ROBERTS.

III. DELAWARE DISTRICT.

DELAWARE District is composed of fourteen Districts and seven Stations, situated in the counties of Delaware, Marion, Union, Logan, Hardin and Wyandot. The geography was changed a year ago by lengthening the boundary from South to North, and shortening the line from East to West, exchanging Henton, a strong Station with about 400 members, for Upper Sandusky, a neat little Station of 200 members with about half the financial strength, and Ridgeway Circuit for Forest.

By these exchanges Delaware District loses in Missionary money alone $202. The Charges taken out paid last year for Missions $433; the Charges added $231, a difference of $202.

But if my predecessor has made a bad bargain in the exchange of real estate, he has shown no lack of wisdom in the choice of men to carry on the work which he handed over to them a year ago. I found the District, for the most part, in good condition and well manned. For many years it has been the banner District in benevolent contributions. With a membership of 6,000, it raised last year for Missions as much money as three Districts in an adjoining Conference having an aggregate membership of 14,000.

The ecclesiastical year has been remarkable in many respects. The work of the traveling Methodist preacher has been harder and the hindrances have been greater than we have ever seen before. Six months of continuous rain with but little frost or sunshine rendered the roads almost impassable. The old Indian trails and blazed paths of the fathers would have been a luxury in comparison with the bottomless mud roads fenced in as they now are, compelling every traveler to plunge in the same deep ruts. At the same time came the influenza or la grippe, which visited almost every home of both pastors and people. Whole families were stricken down, and revival meetings of great promise were prematurely closed without the expected results. Sickness and stormy weather, floods and drouth, and the failure of the corn crop all combined to hinder our benevolent collections and retard all the business interests of the Church. But notwithstanding all these hindrances, much excellent work has been done and the spiritual interests of the Church have been well cared for. Revivals of uncommon power have been carried on, and a thousand souls have been brought into the kingdom.

The Charges most favored in this respect are Asbury, Delaware, Williams Street, Fowler, Larue, Mt. Victory, North Lewisburg and Richwood Circuits.

Other Charges have shared largely in these rich results.

CHURCH PROPERTY.

Delaware District has fifteen churches, affording seats for 13,000 people. The present money value of the church property is $216,000. The fine audience room of Asbury is nearing completion and will be ready for dedication shortly after Conference. When completed, this will be one of the most beautiful and substantial churches in the Conference, with a seating capacity of 1,200. The building is of native limestone, rock faced, laid up in regular range work and lined with brick. It will cost about $30,000.

The debt on Williams Street church is rapidly diminishing, and at the present rate will entirely disappear before the close of another year.

The old church at Marion was sold for $15,000 in cash, and a site for a new church was purchased on the northeast corner of the same square for $6,000, and the foundation of a new church was laid in May, and the walls are up almost ready for covering. The church is built of brick and trimmed with stone. The plan is an improvement on the best models in the State. The church will be beautiful and well arranged inside for all purposes. It will accommodate 1,500 persons and cost about $40,000.

Maysville greatly needs a new church but was not ready to build this year, but repapered and furnished the old church and made the inside new and beautiful at a cost of $400.

One of the most beautiful and commodious country churches in Ohio was dedicated this year at York. The building cost $3,000, which is all provided for. The District has 16 parsonages, worth $28,000, all out of debt.

BENEVOLENT COLLECTIONS.

The District was apportioned $3,300 for Missions. The amount raised is $3,600 for Parent Society. The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society raised $921. The Home Missionary Society $636. Total amount for Missions, $5,160. Other collections, $1,819, a gain of $550. All the collections were taken in all the Charges. Total gain on all benevolent collections, $420.

A special effort has been made to increase the collection for the Superannuates and an advance has been made.

PASTORAL SUPPORT.

The pastors' salaries have been increased on six of the Charges. But short crops and losses are charged up to the preachers, and by this method of settlement there will be some deficiency.

Early in the year a deep sorrow fell upon the home of our dear brother, Rev. Gershom Lease. The wife, who for many years walked the path of life side by side with him, has gone to join the ranks of the redeemed on high. Her fatal illness was of long duration. For many weary months she suffered pain. It was hoped that a change of place might bring relief or give new strength to battle with the enemy, but relentless the work of the destroyer went on, and shortly after coming to her new home in Upper Sandusky she sank rapidly into her last repose. It was not my privilege to be present at the funeral services; the message came when I was absent from home.

When I came to the desolated home I found the strong man on whom the Conference delighted to bestow its highest honors, bowed down in sorrow.

Sister Lease was a perfect woman, a noble wife, and a happy Christian.

PERSONAL.

To my ministerial brethren I am greatly indebted for the cordial reception and hearty support they have given me. To the people of the several Charges I am indebted for general hospitality and the help they have given me in my work. To our Father in heaven I am thankful for his great grace and his blessing on us and our work. I have met all my engagements, held seventy-five out of eighty-four Quarterly Conferences, and preached two hundred times, and cared as best I could for all the interests of the Church.

IV. FINDLAY DISTRICT.

Our annual convocation furnishes the occasion for my annual review of the work wrought in the name of the Lord.

Another gain is cut, we score another tally. Already with some of us there are more milestones in the valley behind than on the heights which intervene between our vision and the celestial city.

With scarcely an exception, the preachers promptly and in good heart took their Stations in the field. The year has been one of hardship. For seven months the roads were almost impassable; for difficulty of travel, I may say they were without a precedent. Added to this, many people were sick with the prevailing epidemic, many died, many not sick yet were not well, yet with a devotion rightly called heroic, they answered the call of duty, pressed to the charge in the war against the man of sin, led by the captain of our salvation, as strength was given them of heaven they swept the field, and many precious souls were brought into the Kingdom of God. We give to Him all praise for all that has been done.

And with this spiritual advancement and a grand uplift of soul there has been substantial material progress. Churches have been erected, parsonages improved, old debts reduced and liquidated, and plans devised for more and better things in the name of our God.

Ada, first in order of this District's appointments, presents to the preacher the most inspiring congregation in the Central Ohio Conference. With her steady and reliable membership, and the rich tides of student life, more than a thousand strong pouring into this college town from nearly every State in the Union, she presents to the minister whose heart is on fire of God to save souls the opportunity of his life. Perhaps the most pressing need of this Charge is a new church, commodious, attractive, well located, and suited to the wants of their great responsibilities.

Adrian, covering the historic ground of Lovell and Crawford on both sides of the classic Tymochte, which like the frothing Tiber rolls its tawny volumes to the sea, has with her young and ardent pastor put forth her best endeavors, and holds a place of honor among the high contracting parties.

Alvada has a history all her own, unique in itself. Last year this point was named the same day with Bairdstown, but being on opposite sides of the globe, they could not well travel in double harness, so each found it better to be alone. Here was a church built by outsiders given to the Methodist Church, but hardly a Society, and the church unpainted, in debt and not dedicated. But the Lord opened the way, and on October 13th, the church was dedicated with great rejoicing. Shortly after, Rev. Joseph Wingate was sent there, a gracious revival followed, church subscriptions were collected, the liabilities were all discharged, the house nicely painted, the Sunday School inspired with new devotion, the bell set in position, and there is good hope here of a well established Methodist church.

Arcadia, the old reliable, as usual comes up smiling at the close of another ecclesiastical year with the old parsonage debt all paid, good collections, salary paid in full and pastor welcomed to the fourth year.

Bairdstown has been cared for by Rev. F. M. Howser, who has done good work, has been abundant in labor, secured a subscription of $1,100 (eleven hundred dollars) for a new church when disastrous fires nearly consumed the hamlet, and for a time it seemed our cause had perished in the flames, but our people have taken heart again. Excavations for the foundations have commenced, stones being drawn to the place, and the promise is that by the holidays a new house of worship will be ready for occupancy.

Bettsville is perhaps more ample in form and magnificent in distance between appointments than any Charge in the District, her lines extending from the Lime Stone Ridge to the Sandusky River, and including all the triangle formed by Fostoria, Fremont and Tiffin, running from Ebenezer on the south to the Ark on the north. A good report will appear. The spirit of revival was felt all over the Circuit. A great reign of grace fell upon the Ark appointment, and out of that and the consecrated gifts of a saved people comes a real gem of a church worth $5,000 (five thousand dollars), and ere the coming of the Christ child is celebrated, it will be set apart for the worship of Almighty God.

Bluffton. Good work has been done. All the interests of the Church faithfully cared for. The reports will be fully abreast of former times.

Carey is undoubtedly holding her own. The energetic and faithful pastor has served notice on the congregation that if returned another year, one of his great concerns will be the erection of a new house of worship, a consummation most devoutly to be wished.

Columbus Grove, located at the junction of the C., H. & D. and P.,

A. & Western railroads, is one of our promising young Stations. A large and growing Society, and an outlook most encouraging.

Dunkirk has for several years been on the rising tide, and comes up to this Conference meriting the "well done, thou good and faithful servant."

Findlay. This is the busy, growing city, which alone of all the cities of the State has increased its population and business four-fold in the last decade. It bids fair to be a stronghold of Methodism, having already three well established Churches within her corporated lines.

First Church is the largest and most important Church in the Conference, is well located, firmly planted, and stands a great power for good. Although the pastor has been greatly afflicted with the protracted illness and final decease of his wife, he has carefully looked after all the interests of the Church and will be entitled to a place high on the roll of honor.

Howard M. E. Church has held on with all canvas to the breeze, largely increasing her membership, improving her Sunday Schools, adding to her resources, solidifying and compacting her work, until now I suppose there is not a Charge in the Conference endowed with more substantial prosperity or that gives grander promise for the future than Howard M. E. Church.

North Findlay Church has been organized since the last Conference. It was completed and dedicated October 27, was designed at first as a Mission Church in the midst of a busy factory population; it now comes up like Minerva of full age and size, claiming to speak for herself, taking a place among her sisters of maturer years, and asking for a preacher all her own. Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all.

Fostoria is the second church in size in the Conference, and although their church is perhaps spacious and commodious as any, yet many times they are straitened for accommodations, and hundreds are turned from her doors. This Charge is in the midst of great prosperity.

Fostoria Circuit retains her ancient prestige as the most desirable and thoroughly equipped Circuit in the Conference. A new and beautiful brick church, with furnace, etc., costing $5,000, has been built and dedicated free of debt at Union Society. With her able pastor and her loyal constituency her face is still to the front. She leads all Circuits and perhaps all Station work, and no doubt distances all competition in pro rata Missionary support. She will have a place high on the roll of honor.

Fremont, formerly called Lower Sandusky, is perhaps the most attractive city in the Conference. Beautiful for situation may truly be said of her. With church and parsonage unsurpassed for completeness and convenience, a large congregation, a splendid Sunday School, the year is rounded out with all claims satisfied, and she continues her career of success and honor.

Houcktown has four appointments, has been well served, had a gracious spirit of revival, all joined the work, and is in good hope for the future.

McComb has two appointments, reposes in the rich valley of the Blanchard River and spreads over Sugar Ridge.

This is a pleasant people, two splendid churches out of debt, comfortable parsonage, abundant in resources and able to do great things for God.

Mt. Blanchard lies toward the pleasant land, has three appointments, has furnished seed corn to plant in many another spiritual field, and always assures the pastor of a warm welcome and a kindly stay. This is also a gas town.

North Baltimore rises out of the sea of oil and gas to be a star of unusual brilliancy. The population has perhaps increased four-fold within three years. Last year they built a beautiful parsonage, and this year finding their sanctuary too strait for them under the thrice-appointed leadership of their young pastor, they resolved to arise and build. The walls are rising, and before the voice of the turtle is heard again in our land will be heard the sound of praise and prayer in this new and more spacious temple.

Portage Station has been left to pursue the even tenor of her way all alone, and at the close of the year under the watchcare of her good pastor makes a satisfactory showing.

Rawson has gone through the year in good shape, all interests cared for and peace in all her borders.

South Ada is well arranged, is well satisfied with their arrangement, perhaps might do even better, and will be well pleased to continue the present pastorate.

South Bluffton has five appointments, not as conveniently arranged as could be desired, yet the best that could be done; comes up in good shape, and desires the pastor's return.

Vanlue concludes a three years' pastorate, with kindliest relations between pastor and people. Parsonage and churches in good repair, free from embarrassing debts, and a very desirable Charge.

Carey is truly royal, who seem to appreciate the high dignity and great importance of the office whereunto they are called. They reckon themselves co-workers with Christ; they study to show themselves faithful ministers of the word of God. They count not their own lives dear unto them, but are possessed of an absorbing death-defying passion to rescue the perishing. "Give me Scotland or I die to save souls and increase the citizenship of heaven," they cry out like John Knox. Such pastors will see God's work prosper without the aid of a professional evangelist. The Head of the Church sets the seal of His approbation on their prayers and work. There are other ministers who have adopted this calling as men do a profession—as a means of livelihood, as it is a clean and respectable manner of life, but they are never consumed by the zeal of God's house, nor do they count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ

Jesus our Lord. They have no genius for organizing a revival, therefore Zion languisheth and they decrease, whereas they should mightily increase, and I apprehend in any case where the reports have depreciated from last year the occasion may be found in one of two things. Either the pastor has too long postponed the earnest presentation of these matters, and hence at the last they have been unduly crowded together, or else the Church itself has had some local enterprise on hand, and in the furtherance of which they have levied upon the Church benevolences, salary of the preacher and the Book Concern. Such a procedure in either case is highly improper and should not be encouraged or endorsed, and when the ministerial claim has not been met, it is because those charged with this responsibility have neglected their duties and left matters to run themselves.

THE GOLDEN BOWL IS BROKEN.

A few words in remembrance of our departed friends. As in former years, the reaper has not failed to thrust the sickle into the ripened harvest. On April 22, 1890, Rev. Stephen D. Shaffer, in his 78th year, the hero of a hundred sore conflicts for country, temperance and Christ, fell at his post in North Baltimore, Ohio, and was transferred from the Church militant to the Church triumphant whose names are written in heaven. Father Shaffer was true as steel to his convictions, uncompromising in his hostility to wrong, ever loyal to his sense of duty and the Church of his choice, and so concerning his social, political and religious whereabouts there could never be any mistake. On the 19th of April, 1890, Mrs. J. M. Avann, wife of the pastor of the First Church in Findlay, after many years of great bodily affliction, ceased at once to wait and suffer and went to join the innumerable company which are without fault before the throne of God, leaving her stricken husband and two daughters and mother amid the toils and griefs of life. Her attractions of person, mind and heart well qualified her as a pastor's wife in the Church of her choice. Her hands are folded, her work is done, and she has entered into rest. Touching my own bereavement out of my sad heart, I will also say, that on April 27, 1890, the second time in my life, infinite wisdom caused me to mourn for my only son, and to be in bitterness for him as one that mourneth for his first-born, called in his fifteenth year, leaving behind this heritage of faith and hope to his friends and playmates, "Tell them I died in Jesus."

V. LIMA DISTRICT.

We commenced the year on Lima District amid the dispensation of death. Rev. Taylor I. Jagger, who was appointed at the last Conference to Middlepoint Circuit, died about twenty hours after his name was read out for that Charge. At the time of the Conference he was reported as rapidly recovering from a severe sickness with which he was attacked shortly before the Conference, and it was confidently expected that he would be able to move to his new Charge within two weeks after the adjournment of the Conference. Amid the hopes of a sure recovery he took a relapse and died Tuesday evening after the adjournment of Conference on Monday night. His funeral was largely attended on Wednesday, the day after his death, in Huntsville, his last pastoral home, and his remains were conveyed to Rockport for burial. Sister Jagger, who had been left with a large family and no means of support for the year, received substantial tokens of sympathy from all the Districts in the Conference, amounting to a considerable sum, which was very thankfully and deservedly received.

J. R. Hall, who was returned to Spencerville Circuit for the third year, where the salary had been inadequate to his support, was appointed to Middlepoint Circuit.

Charles S. Barren preferring Spencerville Circuit to Pennsylvania, and with the consent of Bishop Hurst and the concurrence of Dr. Belt (his Presiding Elder) took charge of Spencerville Circuit.

Death and sickness in an unusual degree visited the District during the year. Fannie B., the oldest daughter of Wm. R. and Mary Seuman, died December 31, after a brief but severe sickness, in her seventh year. She was an amiable and interesting little girl, the favorite of all who knew her. The people of Celina in every kindly way manifested their sympathy with Brother and Sister Seuman. The funeral was very largely attended, the Church being crowded on the sad occasion.

Rev. Josiah F. Crooks was stricken down with a combination of bodily maladies about the middle of March. All that could be done for him by the best medical treatment, the most tender and unceasing ministrations of his family, and the earnest prayers of the members of his Charge was done. He had a great desire to live for his family's sake and the sake of the Church, but his work had been done and faithfully done. On Sunday morning, May 11, our beloved brother's soul went up to join the company of the redeemed, but he was fully prepared. His funeral was largely attended in this Church, there being twenty-seven Methodist ministers present and this large auditorium filled. His body was laid away to rest in the beautiful cemetery of this city.

I commend Sister Crooks and her family to the sympathy and prayers of this Conference. Rev. Ashford Hall was appointed to serve the Charge till Conference, and he has very faithfully done his work.

SPIRITUAL INTERESTS OF THE DISTRICT.

I am thankful to report that considerable progress has been made in maintaining the spiritual interests of the District. The year has been the most unpropitious I ever knew for special revival work. The rain and mud that prevailed during the whole Winter and Spring, and the la grippe epidemic during the Winter presented great obstacles to successful revival work, yet notwithstanding all these things, at the last District Conference the pastors reported about 900 accessions on probation and by letter. Most of the Charges shared in the ingatherings, and on several of the Charges the revivals were quite extensive. The love-feast and sacramental services have been largely attended and deeply spiritual. From the reports of the class leaders at the Quarterly Conferences, I am grateful to report that this means of grace that has been such a spiritual power in Methodism has not been declining on this District.

The Sunday School interests have been generally growing in every essential sense. I believe that more thorough work is being done by the officers and teachers than ever before. Some of our Sunday Schools lack the Missionary spirit and are disposed to use all the money contributed by the Schools for supplies for the Schools, but we can report some improvement in the correction of this spirit. The pastors have so far as I can learn endeavored faithfully to have the recommendations of the Discipline adopted in regard to the organization of all our Sunday Schools into Missionary Societies.

THE BENEVOLENCES.

I cannot report the amounts secured for our benevolent collections. I had hoped at the beginning of the year that we would be able to report an increase for our benevolences, but I fear that our hopes will not be realized. The collection for Missions had to be taken in the midst of the drouth and in the prospect of a great failure in the crops. I am gratified to report that on some of the Charges an advance has been made, and that from three to five of the Charges will be put upon Dr. Young's roll of honor. Some of the Charges have maintained the record of last year, and several I fear will fall below that record. I can say that faithful efforts have been made in behalf of our benevolences.

MINISTERIAL SUPPORT.

The year opened with a hopeful outlook for ministerial support. On several of the Charges salaries were somewhat advanced, and no Charge reduced below the amount allowed last year. But the year has been the most discouraging for several years in the past for raising money for ministerial support. We have put forth our most faithful and earnest efforts to have the salaries paid in full. The majority of the Charges will report salaries paid in full, but there will be a larger deficit on the District than last year.

MATERIAL PROGRESS.

The first Sunday of the Conference year, the auditorium of the Van Wert church, which had been occupied for several years but not entirely completed, was dedicated, Dr. L. A. Belt officiating. This was an occasion of great interest and happiness to the members and friends of that most prosperous Charge in the Conference.

Early in the year, the new brick church on Mendon Circuit, at the Society more commonly known as the Tomlinson Society, but dedicated as the Bethany church, was dedicated. This church cost about $3,700, and is a gem of beauty and a model of convenience. Great credit is due to Rev. Lemasters, the pastor, for the erection of this beautiful church so greatly needed for years. August 31 was a great day in Shane's Crossing. On that day the new church was dedicated by General Gibson. This church is a monument to the credit of Methodism in that growing town, and is the best church for what it cost that can be found anywhere. It is a brick, 56x36, tower and spire, slate roof, stained glass windows, elevated floor and complete in all its apartments at a cost not to exceed $4,000. The Society will be under lasting obligations to Brother Hickernell, the Pastor, and the faithful Board of Trustees for their good taste, great economy and untiring zeal in the erection of this beautiful church edifice.

I reported at last Conference that a subscription had been taken by Brother Crooks, amounting to about $4,000 to build a new brick church at Elida. This church will be ready for dedication sometime in November. It will cost when completed between $5,500 and $6,000. It will be a great monument to Methodism in that village, where a new church has been so greatly needed for years. Brother Crooks, who had worked so hard to raise the money and plan for this church, anticipated so much pleasure and happiness in seeing this enterprise completed, was stricken down at the very time the contractor commenced his work. Brother Hall, who was appointed to the Charge, tendered his services to the Trustees to do all he could to aid them in their work.

NEW PARSONAGES.

A beautiful brick parsonage was completed in Delphos in the early Winter. It is good enough for a prince or anyone else to live in. It cost somewhat over $3,000. There is not a more complete or a more convenient parsonage in the Conference. Brother Holland, the pastor, deserves a great deal of praise for his genius and hard work in connection with the erection of this beautiful parsonage. When he is through with it any preacher may consider himself favored to live in it.

At St. Mary's, a new parsonage has been a great want for many years. Rev. J. D. Simmons, who was appointed to that Charge one year ago, has proven himself equal to the great emergency.

A beautiful, commodious and well arranged parsonage has been built under his untiring and patient labors, and will be ready for occupancy in a short time. The building is a frame and will cost about $1,650.

Improvements have been made on a number of churches and parsonages, and debts on churches and parsonages have been paid during the year.

DISTRICT CONFERENCES.

Two sessions of the District Conference were held this year, and were occasions of interest and the sources of inspiration to the pastors and people who attended them. The people on Lima District believe in the great utility of District Conferences.

PERSONALLY.

I have had greater responsibilities to meet this year than ever before, but I have been blessed with good health all the year. I am thankful to God for his goodness, and to the pastors and people for their kindness and coöperation. May God bless this session of the Conference with his presence and guidance, so that all things done at this Conference may contribute to the greatest possible good to the Church.

I. R. HENDERSON.

VI. TOLEDO DISTRICT.

TOLEDO District entered upon the work of this year shorn of two of its best Charges and a loss of 700 members, leaving a membership of 4,500, containing 1,200 members less than Defiance District, 1,800 less than Findlay, and more than 2,000 less than either of the other three. In point of wealth, Toledo District unquestionably occupies the fifth place. Sixteen lines of railway pass through it, dividing the population into numerous towns, many of them rival villages.

The requirement of the people, together with the activity of sister denominations, make it essential that regular weekly morning and evening Sabbath services be sustained in most of these towns if Methodism is to prosper as it should. This fact makes our Charges smaller and more numerous than in most of the Districts. The average membership of Toledo District by Charges is 168, while that of Delaware, Lima and Bellefontaine together is 300. Our sister denominations regard this portion of our State as Missionary ground, expending about four thousand dollars for the support of the ministry who occupy this field.

To meet the situation and support our ministry, our membership pay for pastoral support about five dollars per member, more than one-third more than is paid per member in the stronger Districts, while some of our Charges pay eight, nine and even ten dollars a member for pastoral support. The amount estimated for pastoral support will be in advance of last year, nearly all of which will be paid, notwithstanding the unusually idle and sickly Winter and the drouth of midsummer.

THE VARIOUS BENEVOLENCES of the Church have been carefully presented by all the ministers, full apportionments being made at the November District Conference, $3,050 being distributed to the Charges to be raised for Missions, and four per cent. of the pastors' salary for the Superannuated collections. While no cause has been neglected, and few blanks will be found, an advance of twenty per cent. will be made on Missions and Superannuated Funds over last year, an increase on the same territory of $509, $3,058 being raised for the Parent Board, or 67 cents a member.

An advance is also reported for both of the Woman's Missionary Societies. These Societies are active, doing noble service and full of good works, $714 being raised for the W. F. M. S., and about $350 for the W. H. M. S.

Two District Conferences have been held during the year, one in November at Sylvania, and one in June at Third Street, Toledo. Both were well attended, and were made valuable to the various interests of the Church, to the pastors, and the Churches where they were held.

The Epworth League has taken hold of the young people on fourteen of our Charges, and bids fair to be a means of permanent power in the Church. The devotional meetings held under its direction are full of blessing. They are largely attended and are awakening in many a spirit of prophecy. It is a class meeting revival for our young people, and our Quarterly Conferences are receiving reports from the leader of the Religious department under the call of Class Leader's reports. We hope soon to see a League on every Charge connected with our District League already organized.

The revival season was one of unusual difficulty. In many places during the entire Winter the roads were well nigh impassable, while fully half of the preachers and their families suffered with the people from the prevailing influenza, the well-named "grippe." Most of these brethren lost a Sunday or two, while a number were confined to the house for several weeks. While thus the usual Winter series of meetings were broken or wholly abandoned, conversions have taken place in every Charge and probationers reported at nearly every Quarterly Conference. Some most gracious revivals have attended the labors of the workman. Notably at Oak Harbor, Wauseon, Liberty Center, Lakeside, Albany Street Charge, Dowling, Rocky Ridge, Bowling Green, Tontogany and Kansas.

The circumstances seeming to justify the request, Oak Harbor was set apart by itself in the first quarter, and Rev. L. C. McBride, an efficient local preacher, has supplied La Carne, and has succeeded in establishing a good Society at Rocky Ridge. He has also taken an appointment at Lime Stone and preaches at Gray Town. Cygnet, a new town in the oil regions, was occupied in October. A supply, Rev. C. E. Wharton, was furnished them. The close of the year finds a small but vigorous Society and a church, a neucleus around which a strong Society and other appointments may spring up.

Rev. S. D. Hutsinpiller was transferred from the Ohio Conference to fill the vacancy at St. Paul's, Toledo. He began his work the second week of October and has done royal service, preaching to large congregations during the entire year.

Rev. Mark Richardson has labored with his usual acceptability at Detroit Avenue. Brother Richardson has given seventeen years' continuous work and ought to be honored with Conference membership. No worthier name is on our roll.

Rev. Samuel Keiser, a local preacher, has made an envial record at Dowling and Millbury.

Rev. M. A. Casey, pastor at Maumee, because of ill health, was transferred by Bishop Goodsell to the Colorado Conference, in January, 1890. His place was supplied by Rev. C. B. Canon, a student in the Ohio Wesleyan University. Brother Canon has done faithful and efficient service during the year.

THE SPIRITUAL CONDITION of most of the Charges is very encouraging, as manifested in the attendance upon Sabbath services, the means of grace, the class-meeting and particularly the mid-week prayer-meeting. The love-feasts are an inspiration to all who attend them, and the communion is neglected by few.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOLS were never more active and studious than now, and spiritual results are earnestly sought for and obtained from them. Methodist literature is used with but two or three exceptions. The schools are nearly all organized as Missionary Sunday Schools, and in many of them the catechism is taught.

THE PASTORS have given careful attention to the interests of our Church periodicals, especially to the Western Christian Advocate, to which our membership is much attached. The questions before the Church at this time, as well as the general work of the Church, are so well presented in our Advocate that it ought to be found in every Methodist home.

MATERIAL IMPROVEMENTS.—Such improvements and repairs as are needed from time to time to preserve church property, keep it neat and efface the wear of years, has been made on almost every Charge, so that I recall but two houses of worship that need special attention, though there is room for improvement and enlargement of parsonages and churches, and other churches are to be erected.

At Elmore and Genoa the debts have been decreased and improvements made at an expense of $300.

At Jerry City, Brother Spencer has succeeded in raising a church debt of about $600, the amount being paid in cash or interest bearing notes. A lot for a new church at Bradner has also been purchased and paid for, and a subscription of more than $1,000 taken for a church on a church extension plan to cost $2,200.

At Gibsonburg the new parsonage has been completed and an organ bought at Washington Chapel.

A large bell has been placed on the church at Catawba Island that the fruit growers may not forget when Sunday comes.

Very neat repairs have been made on the parsonage property at Metamora at considerable expense.

Part of the debts on Pemberville Circuit have been paid and a bell purchased at Pemberville.

The church at Sylvania has been entirely rearranged, adding much to its comfort and convenience.

Albany Street, Toledo, has paid $200 of her long standing debt, and with a society of 120 members will soon take courage to lift it all.

St. John's Church has added repairs, and St. Paul's has cancelled the mortgage. Both churches have also purchased a "grand" piano for their Sunday School rooms.

Third Street has been enlarged so as to give the Sunday School three additional rooms, and nearly doubling the seating capacity of the church, at an expense of $700.

An organ has been supplied to the church at Tontogany and also at Portage, where the church has been very neatly refitted. The debt at Wauseon has all been paid.

Eighteen Charges are free from all indebtedness upon church property.

Besides such material improvements as have been mentioned, five churches have been completed and dedicated during the year, making ten during the past three years, five of them being where there were none before. A new church has been built for every quarter of the past three years. December 1, 1889, we dedicated the church at Stony Ridge, a handsome frame structure, 33x55 in size, with a beautiful spire and bell. The cost of the church was $1,800; all was subscribed and nearly all has been paid. On the same date, Dr. E. D. Whitlock dedicated the new church at Swanton. The church is a veneered brick edifice, costing about $4,000. The cost of the church was all subscribed, and less than $200 remains unpaid. This church is a monument to the industry and perseverance of the pastor, B. N. Boardman, and his wife, and the people rejoice in their beautiful temple.

January 5th a very neat and commodious church was dedicated by General Gibson, of Tiffin, at Kansas, Gibsonburg Circuit, Rev. J. W. Shultz, pastor. The entire cost of the church was about $1,800, which was all provided for.

February 9th we dedicated the church at Cygnet, costing about $1,200. The indebtedness of $400 was provided for April 27. Dr. Earl Cranston dedicated Clark Street Church in South-east Toledo, a handsome brick edifice costing about $3,000, seating 250 people, where a Sunday School of 115 scholars is already gathered, with a class of some 40 members at present under the pastoral care of M. M. Figley, of Third Street. Two other churches approach completion: one at Port Clinton will be dedicated in October. Rev. C.W. Taneyhill has erected as beautiful a church as the Conference contains. It is built of stone and brick, handsomely finished in oak panels and ceiling, is 55x70 feet in size, will seat 600 people, and will cost about $12,000.

At Shoup's Corners, under Rev. Henry Hill, a worthy local preacher, a brick school house has been purchased, which is being altered and converted into a church to be dedicated in November next. A number of their enterprises are being planned and will soon develop. Six new appointments have been established, at three of which classes have been organized.

Two pastors, Brother M. M. Figley, of East Toledo, and Brother G. B. Wiltsie, close their fifth year and must move. The best year of the five is reported of each of them. They and their Charges are deserving of the best.

One was returned the fourth year, five on their third year, eight on the second year, nine are on the first year, and three Charges were supplied.

St. John's Church, Toledo, through its Ladies' Aid Society, and by a hearty vote of the last Quarterly Conference, sends an invitation for the next session of this Conference. Let us visit St. John's.

The Angel of Death has visited the homes of pastors of Toledo District thrice during the year.

One week after the close of the last Conference session, on Monday, September 30, 1889, about the hour of noon, suddenly and unexpectedly from the parsonage at Monroe Street, Sister J. W. Miller passed from earth to her reward in heaven.

Again, March 25, 1890, our brother, Daniel Shreves, pastor at Liberty Center, was bereft. Sister Lillie B. Shreves, a missionary to South America and India, and a pastor's wife in this Conference, knowing that death drew nigh, met him with confident and triumphant song.

And again, in May, 1890, beautiful and bright little Clarence, youngest son of Rev. J. H. Bethards, pastor of St. John's, Toledo, gently slept his little life away. "Of such is the kingdom of heaven."

Wm. St. John, of St. John's Church, beloved and honored by all that knew him, a most worthy and valuable delegate to our last General Conference, died in May, 1890, in full and joyful hope of immortality and eternal life.

"Asleep in Jesus blessed sleep."

This brief record partially discloses the work wrought by God's servants in this field. To us it has been a year of toil and earnest effort to be a workman that needeth not to be ashamed.

With devout thanksgiving to Almighty God for health and strength, for his comfort and grace, with gratitude for the brotherly kindness received from the ministry and membership on the District, do we make this report for the Conference year of 1889 and 1890.

I. PASTORAL ADDRESS ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH.

To the members of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the bounds of the Central Ohio Conference:

In sending you words of greeting and of counsel, of what can we, your pastors, more appropriately write than of the Christian life?

From the beginning of his earthly existence, man possessed a twofold life, that of the body and of the soul. Both these forms of life were forfeited by the first transgression, and immediate consignment of the original human pair to endless woe was only averted by the provisions of redemption through Jesus Christ. This redemption included both soul and body, so that the forfeited earthly life of both was bought back by the atonement, and an opportunity was given man to secure for both soul and body eternal life in heaven.

But though the atonement redeemed Adam's body from immediate death, and made possible the restoration of spiritual life to the soul, as results of sin, the body became mortal, was condemned to return to its original dust, and for its restored immortality await the resurrection of the last day, and the soul being now separated from God, the author of spiritual as well as natural life, was left in a state of spiritual death, dead in sin, though still inhabiting its tabernacle, the body.

As Methodists, we need not stop to discuss the moral state of infants, nor to adjust our creed to the present advanced stage of theological science, as we all believe them to be unconditionally saved through the atonement of Christ. But the Bible teaches that we are born in sin, in a state of spiritual death, and in spite of the fine-spun theories of men, excepting the Son of God, history fails to furnish us a single case of a child passing from infancy to accountability, without ever going astray either in feeling, thought, word or deed. We have all gone astray, and the word all in this case means all. God has concluded all under sin, and he never draws a wrong conclusion.

In this state of spiritual death and alienation, God says to the adults of our race, "Ye must be born again." We have been born once, but "except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God." Without this he can neither enter the spiritual kingdom of God on earth nor his eternal kingdom in heaven.

In being born again we pass from death unto life; we are born of God and become new creatures in Christ Jesus, receive the divine impress, divine nature, and divine love, and we now begin to live the Christian life.

Brethren and sisters, this doctrine of the new and second birth is proclaimed all through the Scriptures, and was preached by Christ and his apostles. Being taught of God, and catching the spirit of the divine Master, the apostolic fathers, confessors, martyrs and reformers, proclaimed it to the people as the ages rolled on, and when John Wesley got his heart "strangely warmed," and his co-adjutors got theirs warmed in the same manner, the gospel they preached "was not in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance."

"What we have felt and seen,
With confidence we tell,
And publish to the sons of men,
The signs infallible."

Under such preaching as this, begotten and impelled by an inward spiritual life, and then caught up and scattered through all the associations of life by a membership who had the same life and light and power in them, thousands of souls were awakened, believed, were born again into the same spiritual life, and began to live it.

If the Methodists of to-day are to be worthy offspring of a noble parentage, we must have the same life, and "walk by the same rule, and mind the same thing." But now comes the question, how is this new life to be obtained? As atheistic scientists, both ancient and modern, with all their searching, have neither been able to find out God, nor find the "missing link between the living and the not living," neither can the conceited "liberal Christians" of our day find any other method of obtaining spiritual life than that prescribed in the Holy Book.

It would be foolish for either ministers or laymen to denounce or depreciate art, science, philosophy, literature, education, church architecture and music, oratory, and all the grand agencies for the elevation and refinement of our race, because they, all combined, can neither beget spiritual life in the soul, nor maintain it when it is begotten. It is no more their province to do this than it is for a mineral to produce a vegetable, or a vegetable to produce an animal, but as some minerals may help vegetables to grow, and vegetables may feed and make animals strong, so may the agencies mentioned, when rightly used, promote the growth of spiritual life after the life itself has been produced. But Jesus Christ and he alone "hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel," and aside from the name of Jesus "there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved," and even Jesus himself, though "able to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by Him," yet even He neither can nor will save any man that fails to comply with the conditions He himself has prescribed.

What are the conditions of salvation? Repentance and faith. In this refined and progressive age these doctrines may sound a little old-fashioned, especially to the conceited and fastidious, but with sensible sinners and sound Christians they rank among the freshest and most stirring doctrines of the gospel, and make all the difference between being saved and lost—between heaven and hell.

By repenting after a godly sort, and believing with the heart unto righteousness, the sinner is pardoned, the soul is justified, adopted, regenerated, and becomes a new creature in Christ Jesus, and in this new creation the new-born soul becomes an heir of God and a joint heir with Christ, and this heirship embraces all that God is and all that He has "for all things are yours; whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life or death, or things present or things to come; all are yours; and ye are Christ's, and Christ is God."

"My father is rich in houses and lands,
He holdeth the wealth of the world in his hands,
Of rubies and diamonds, of silver and gold,
His coffers are full, he has riches untold.
I'm the child of a King, the child of a King,
With Jesus my Savior, I'm the child of a King."

Accompanying the spiritual life just mentioned, the new believer knows and feels that such a change has taken place, and this consciousness Mr. Wesley calls the witness of our own spirit; but in addition to this there is given the witness of the Spirit of God, "the Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit that we are the children of God." The early Methodists made the witness of the Spirit a distinctive feature both in their preaching and in the relation of religious experience, and what pith and power it gave to both.

Let us follow them as they followed Christ. But now with this divine life wrought in the soul, what are we to do with it? Sit down in a damask Antinomian rocking chair,

"And sit and sing ourselves away,
To everlasting bliss?"

or take passage in a Pullman sleeping car with all the latest improvements, and ride right into heaven without ever opening our eyes or turning over until we sweep through the everlasting gates? If this were all God intended by our conversion, would it not be better for him to kill us and take us to heaven as soon as he saved us, for then nobody would have the trouble of feeding, clothing and raising us. No, no; not for this alone did God create us anew in Christ Jesus.

The new life is to be maintained and we are to grow until we reach "unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ," and that we may do this we must act as we do in regard to our bodies. Material food is essential to physical life, and in the United States three meals a day are considered necessary to physical health. Milk for babies, gradually changing to solids, and increasing the quantity and quality until we are able to eat strong meat. Similar processes must be followed in regard to spiritual life. It is well enough to be like Paul, children when we are children; but it is really pitiable if not ludicrous to see what big, old babies we have in some of our Churches—babies that we have to wrap in flannel, hold by the fire, feed with the bottle, pet and caress to keep life in them, when they ought to be large and strong enough to plow corn, chop wood and carry heavy burdens.

Let us grow up into Christ, "be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might," "grasp the deep things of God," "the secret of the Lord which is with them that fear Him;" let us ascend the mountain of God's holiness where the fogs and miasma of earth never reach; the pure atmosphere of heaven is breathed, the light of the celestial city shines where Moses, Elijah, angels, and the triune God commune with us, and from those lofty heights, pure enjoyments and heavenly associations, we will send down the shout to the Sanballats, Tobiahs, Geshems, and other conductors of the puppet shows of earth. "We cannot come down."

How are we to rise to this high status in the Christian life? By eating an appropriate quantity and quality of spiritual food, and taking appropriate exercise. As to where such food may be obtained we only need say that the Bible, closet, family altar, prayer and class meetings, love-feast, Sunday School, Epworth League, preaching of the gospel, the sacrament and the Lord's Supper, and such other means as God by his Church may provide, will so supply our spiritual wants as to make us that we "shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ."

Our address thus far is on matters pertaining to personal salvation, but God has established his Church on the earth, and through the means by which we became the children of God. He also inducts us into his spiritual Church, yet the visible Church is now divided into many denominations, and as this is not the place to discuss denominal questions, it is enough to say that we have chosen the Methodist Episcopal Church as our religious home.

Let us be loyal to our own home. This does not imply that we are to be boors and bigots, for though the Methodist Episcopal Church is, and ought to be, the best for us, let us remember that other Churches sustain the same relation to their members, and let us neither denounce, nor lightly esteem free Christian men and women for exercising the right that we claim for ourselves; but let us bid them God-speed, give them the hand of Christian fellowship, pray for them, join them in the great reforms and enterprises of the day, worship with them occasionally as opportunity offers, and our own services are suspended.

But while we do, and ought to do, all these things, let us not leave the others undone; let us be loyal to our own Church, worship at its altars, support its ministers, patronize its literature, stand by its benevolences, teach our children its catechism and theology, send them to its schools and colleges, and let us all reconsecrate ourselves to God and his service.

One thought more. While the Christian life is the indwelling of God in our souls, and is felt and enjoyed in our hearts, it is at the same time to be seen, heard and felt by those about us, and this means that the Christian life is two-fold—inward and outward life. By those around us it is to be heard in our chaste conversation, seen in our spirit and deportment, and to be felt in all those sweet and holy and elevating influences which spontaneously flow out from all who are "filled with the Spirit." Paul tells us to "walk circumspectly," to "walk worthy the vocation wherewith we are called," and the word walk in these and other parts of Scripture is significant.

The Christian life is sometimes called a warfare, and at other times a race, but both fighting and running are extraordinary movements of human life, while walking is the common movement of our race, and applies to the ordinary affairs of life. Enoch's translation was the most extraordinary event in his history, but the grandest eulogy passed upon him by the infallible word is that "he walked with God." This undoubtedly alludes to Enoch's daily life, and not to some extraordinary occasion, as a summons to meet God on the summit of Sinai, or to witness the glories of the transfiguration on Mount Herman.

"Enoch walked with God." This was the habit of his daily life. His feelings, thoughts, purposes, spirit, temper, conversation, conduct in the family, the social circle, in business, in official life, and in the Church, where all such as God approved, and the only evidence we need on this point is the simple statement that "he walked with God," for God will not walk with any man a rod nor a minute only as he goes where he ought to go, says what he ought to say, and does what he ought to do.

As ministers and members of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the Central Ohio Conference, let our family life be such that God may be the recognized head of every household.

In our social life let us never be found where Jesus would not accompany us, never engage in any amusement that he would not countenance, and let our conversation be as it becometh the Gospel of Christ. In our business relations let there be not only a freedom from actual dishonesty and from all the trickery methods of the sharp trade, but let there be such frankness and uprightness as will convince all with whom we deal that there is true dignity in Christian life and deportment; in mingling with our fellow men in the multiform relations of civil life, let us be true copies of our Great Original.

And thus with a genuine Christian life within us, and spontaneously flowing out from us into all the relations of mankind, iniquity will stop its mouth, the sources of evil will dry up, and the fountains of righteousness will so overflow the parched lands and deserts of earth as to restore the paradise of God. ISAAC NEWTON.

II. DOCUMENTS RELATING TO EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS.

1. REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE VISITORS TO THE OHIO WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

Your committee, on reaching the seat of the University, from first to last received all the assistance that could be rendered by the president and professors to acquaint it with the institution and its work during the year.

Both the University proper and Monnett Hall are charmingly located.

The examinations were carefully conducted by the professors with results highly commendable of their teaching and the progress of the students. The first year of the presidency of Rev. J. W. Bashford, D. D., has demonstrated the wisdom of the trustees in calling him to this honorable and responsible position.

Good morals and high scholarship are the objects aimed at by the University. We take especial pleasure in referring to the College love-feast. It has not been our privilege to hear richer testimonies to the grace of God than we heard there.

The new building at Monnett Hall almost doubles its capacity, an improvement much needed to accommodate the large number of young ladies in attendance. During the year a large number of students were excused from chapel for want of room, but the new chapel, so long needed and now assured, will provide amply for all.

The prospects for the University were never brighter than now, and never was it better prepared than now to do the work demanded by the Church.

E. D. WHITLOCK, Chairman.

J. H. BETHARDS, Secretary.

III.—ON EDUCATION.

2. THE OHIO WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

We are gratified in being able to report that since the Conference last met, the Ohio Wesleyan University has had the most successful year in its history. The President, Dr. James W. Bashford, who was then just entering on his office, has abundantly met the warmest hopes and expectations of the University and of the Church at large. We feel that we may congratulate the friends of the University, and of the cause of education, on his accession to the head of our greatest Methodist College. The faculty, already strong and successful, has been strengthened during the year by the addition of several more professors and teachers. The number of students has largely exceeded the previous enrollment and reached a total of 1,120. More than eighty were graduated at the late commencement, and the relative number taking the regular college courses is greater than ever before. Yet, there is still room; the Methodist Church in Ohio ought constantly to have two thousand of her young people enrolled as students in this institution.

The material interests of the University show growth and prosperity, though not as rapidly as we could desire. Within the past year the Board, looking to the future needs of the school, has wisely secured for the institution one of the finest lots in the city, containing about four acres of ground, and lying about equidistant from the old University campus and Monnett Hall. Our various college grounds now aggregate about forty acres. The large Monnett Hall, once thought capacious for all demands, has for some years been too limited for the troops of ladies who wished homes under its roof. The capacity of the building has been more than doubled during the year; more than two hundred ladies are now comfortably accommodated there, and within a few weeks a third large addition will furnish rooms for one hundred more, and will doubtless be immediately filled. These enlargements of the realty and the buildings of the University have been at an expense of about fifty thousand dollars, an investment of the funds deemed urgently necessary, but calling for an immediate addition of means to the treasury of the University.

But the most important advance movement within the year was toward the erection of a new University Chapel. For ten years past the old Chapel has been overcrowded for our daily Chapel services, and last Fall the College was compelled to go to one of the city churches, St. Paul's, in South Delaware, for its daily prayer service. But no church in town has room for the Sabbath afternoon lectures, and this service has been held in the City Opera House; and this has always been overflowing with our large audiences. Under these circumstances, the Board, one year ago, resolved to attempt the erection of a new building for chapel and other purposes. The agencies at work for the University in this behalf have reached a subscription of over sixty-five thousand dollars, and the Board has begun a building to cost about eighty thousand dollars. We hope this building, so much needed, will be ready for occupation by the opening of the next year.

The academic work of the year has been regularly and successfully pursued. The promise of harmonious and successful work for the present year is equally good.

But the most satisfactory and gratifying fact in the history and work of the University is its unbroken record as a religious school. Born and baptized in prayer, it has always been faithful to its vocation. The large majority of the students are hopefully pious; the Young People's Christian Association is a very large and active organization; the students' prayer meetings are full of life; conversions are of almost constant occurrence, and the College may be said to be in a state of chronic revival. A larger proportion of the alumni are found in the Christian ministry and in active religious life than in any other college in Methodism.

W. G. WILLIAMS, Sec'y Board of Trustees.

We nominate Hon. Charles H. Foster to serve as trustee of the Ohio Wesleyan for the term of five years. In accordance with the request of the Board of Trustees of the University, we nominate Rev. Leroy A. Belt, D. D., as Financial Agent for the coming year, to serve without compensation.

We nominate as visitors to the University for the coming year, J. L. Albritton and J. H. Bethards.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

1. We recognize in the Board of Education of our Church an important connectional organization, which is doing a much needed work. We heartily endorse the efforts of its Secretary, Dr. Charles H. Payne, to secure unity, harmony and greater efficiency in the management of all our educational interests.
2. We recommend the general observance of "Children's Day," and the use of the exercises prepared by the Board of Education.
3. We recommend that hereafter the collection taken for the "Children's Fund" on Children's Day be reported separately, and placed, if possible, in a separate column in our Conference Minutes; and that the avails of this collection be forwarded to the Board of Education, at New York.
4. We recommend, in accordance with the advice of the Board of Bishops, that hereafter all other money contributed for the cause of education be reported separately, and placed in our Minutes under the head of special collections, and paid to the Conference Educational Society.
5. We recommend that, for the present year, all educational collections, unless specifically designated, be equally divided between the Board of Education and the Conference Educational Society.

SCHOOLS OF THEOLOGY.

There is a growing demand for a thoughtful, educated ministry, and we advise all our men who intend to enter the ministry not only to complete a regular college course of study, but also to avail themselves of the opportunities for special training afforded them in our excellent schools of theology. We have received communications from Drew, Boston, Garrett and DePauw. We rejoice in the continued prosperity of these schools and recommend as visitors to Drew Seminary, Thomas H. Campbell and James H. Fitzwater; to Boston School of Theology, Wilbur J. Hodges and William G. Williams; to Garrett Biblical Institute, Charles W. Taneyhill and Wilson W. Spencer; to DePauw School of Theology, Wesley G. Waters and Elias D. Whitlock.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

We make the following nominations for this society: President, Elias D. Whitlock; Vice-President, Wilbur J. Hodges; Secretary, Cyrus B. Austin; Treasurer, William G. Williams. Additional members: Wesley G. Waters, Richard Wallace, Hiram M. Perkins and the pastor of Williams St., Delaware.

We request the secretary of this society to make a full report of all moneys received and disbursed to the Committee of Education next year, to be incorporated in its report.

IV.—THE BIBLE CAUSE.

The Word of God is the foundation of all moral and religious influence, the Gospel of which is the power of God unto salvation. It is the command of God that all nations be taught the Word. It is His desire that all men be brought to know Him, "Whom to know aright is life everlasting." As it is the mission and work of the Bible Society to distribute the word of truth, we rejoice with the society in its success, not in the United States alone, but in the whole world.

We recognize this agency as a a great auxiliary in our missionary work.

We congratulate the Central Ohio Conference in its collections, having raised $140 in advance of last year.

Resolved, That we, as Methodist preachers, exert ourselves to the utmost to place a Bible in every home within the bounds of our Charges.

Resolved, That we heartily approve of the effort to place a Bible in the hand of every child who can read.

If this be done, we predict that the second coming of our Lord Jesus Christ will be more speedily realized.

ARASTUS BARKER, Chairman.

J. BAUMGARDNER, Secretary.

V.—ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

We acknowledge the great providence of God in originating and perpetuating the institution of the Sunday School.

We recognize, as much as ever, the Sunday School as a great auxiliary in teaching the truths of Christianity as contained in the Divine Word, and the doctrines of religion as taught in the Methodist Episcopal Church, and believe it becomes the duty of all Christians, and especially ministers of the Gospel, to give it all possible encouragement.

We regard the Sunday School as the nursery of the Church. We regret that this nursery of the Church is not better cultivated and more largely extended.

We, therefore, recommend that the sum of $850 for Sunday School Union, asked for by the Secretaries of the Sunday School Union, be apportioned by the Presiding Elders to the several Charges.

We regret that only $261 has been paid this year, by a membership of thirty-six thousand four hundred—eighteen dollars less than last year. The pressing demands, arising from the increase of population and growth of the Church, both at home and abroad, should arouse every pastor to the performance of this, his imperative duty.

We recommend the use and study of the Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church in our Sunday Schools, and the organization of the Sunday School children for catechetical instruction.

We heartily recommend the use of the "Benevolence Catechism Card" as a means of teaching and enthusing our people in the doctrines, polity and work of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

We believe nothing surpasses or equals our own Sunday School helps; therefore, urge the use of our literature in all our Sunday Schools.

We recommend some system of gradation, as an incentive to a more thorough Bible study.

SAMUEL SCOTT, Chairman.

J. F. NEWCOMB, Secretary.

VI.—ON THE TRACT CAUSE.

One of the most powerful agencies for good and evil is the press of to-day. While God is using it in various ways to spread the Gospel and build up His kingdom, the devil is using it to pull down the same. From it come countless thousands of Bibles and millions of leaflets, which are being placed in every home in this and other lands.

We recognize the great work accomplished by the Tract Society in opening up the way for the more extensive application of the Word of God—in many cases breaking up the soil for the reception of the seed sown by the faithful preacher of the Gospel.

We recommend the use of tracts among our people and the taking of the collections for the same.

CHAS. F. GOWDY, Chairman.

B. B. POWELL, Secretary.

VII.—ON FREEDMEN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION SOCIETY.

For twenty-four years this society has carried forward the work of establishing and maintaining institutions of Christian learning in the South, among both white and colored people.

The year 1891 will be very appropriately celebrated as the Quarter-Centennial Jubilee year throughout the Church.

The Central Ohio Conference hereby pledges to co-operate with the officers of the society to make the proposed celebration a success worthy of the magnificent work accomplished.

During the twenty-four years, the society has expended $2,806,890.27. The increase from all sources for the year ending

July 1st, 1890, was $266,684, being an increase of $45,246 over any preceding year. Of this amount, the annual Conference gave in collections $103,653. The remainder came from various sources, including $48,000 from the students themselves, in tuition and room rent.

We deeply regret a decrease of $51.00, as compared with last year. The Conference is asked to raise during the ensuing year $4,306.

We, as a Conference, therefore, are raising but little more than 25 per cent. of the amount which, in the judgment of the Board of Managers, is needed to carry forward this great work. Surely this Conference can do better the coming Conference year.

The following reasons are some of the many which should impel every pastor to faithfully present this cause to his people.

1. The field occupied embraces the sixteen Southern States, in which the Methodist Episcopal Church has thirty-two annual Conferences, with nearly 500,000 communicants, about equally divided between the white and colored people.

2. In this territory dwell three-fourths of all the ignorant masses of the whole nation.

3. The responsibility of planting and maintaining schools of Christian learning in this vast territory, so far as that responsibility rests upon the Methodist Episcopal Church, is almost wholly with this Society.

4. The Society now has under its control forty institutions of learning, with 315 teachers and 8,336 young men and women in them.

5. The value of the property in this system of schools is $1,500,000. Such a development in twenty-four years is marvelous and shows that money given to this society brings forth abundant results.

6. Christian culture among both white and colored people is the great factor in the settlement of the race problem, which threatens so much the peace and prosperity of the South, as well as of the whole nation.

Resolved, That, as a Conference, we cheerfully accept the $4,306 as our apportionment for next year, and hereby instruct the Presiding Elders to apportion that amount to the several charges.

Since intelligence is the only guarantee to a deeper interest in this branch of Christian work, we recommend that "The Christian Educator" find a place in all our homes.

J. H. CATER, Chairman.

A. A. THOMAS, Secretary.

VIII.—ON THE OBSERVANCE OF THE SABBATH.

While we are gratified to see an increased regard for the Sabbath in some quarters, yet in others this great issue still presses upon the Church and the nation for right solution. We are more than ever firmly convinced that the observance of the first day of the week as a day of rest, meditation and worship, lies at the very foundation of Christian society and civilization. The encroachments upon the Sabbath by the railways, the press and the liquor saloons, for the sake of gain, are sapping the foundations of morality among our people, and constitute a serious menace to the perpetuity of our free institutions. The Sabbath amusements, also, which are gaining ground in this country, are a cause of disturbance to church-going people, and a source of great demoralization to the young.

Therefore, in the name of the thousands of working men, who are deprived of their rights to a Sabbath rest; in the name of all order-loving Christian society, whose morals are being imperiled; in the name of our God, whose worship is interrupted and diminished, and whose commands are flagrantly violated, we utter our earnest and emphatic protest against the continuance of Sabbath desecration.

We heartily sympathize with the work and aims of the "American Sabbath Association," and commend it to the confidence and support of our people. We call upon all Christians to take a decided stand against Sunday newspapers, base-ball performances, theaters and excursions, under whatever specious pretexts they may be presented.

We demand the enforcement, by the properly constituted authorities, of our State laws, which are upon the Statute books of Ohio for the protection of the Christian Sabbath.

We heartily endorse the measure known as the "Sunday Rest" bill, now pending in the Congress of these United States, and we urge upon our legislators its speedy passage, that all persons engaged in the military, postal or other service of this Government, may enjoy the privileges of a real Christian Sabbath.

We also earnestly request the Commissioners of the World's Columbian Exposition, to be held at Chicago in 1893, to stand firm against all efforts that are made to open the gates of the Exposition on the Lord's Day, and thus give to the world a fitting example of those religious principles which have made our country so renowned among the nations for liberty, morality and prosperity.

THOS. N. BARKDULL, Chairman.

DUSTON KEMBLE, Secretary.

IX. ON TEMPERANCE AND PROHIBITION.

The liquor traffic still goes on. The American saloon is still a great and legalized institution in our land. It is still the secret lodge of the thief, the murderer, the unscrupulous and politician. It still bribes courts, suggests legislation, and dictates in the construction of political platforms. It grows resolute and defiant with time, and impertinent with experience. It derides good morals, it overrides public order, it defies loudly and stoutly all law, it tramples upon the holy Sabbath, it prevents the progress of the Church, it breaks up the sanctity of the family, and says to the State: All things shall subserve my claims and bow at my scepter.

For scores of years the question has been agitated; for a long time various remedies for the evil have been suggested and many of them tried; but we are still face to face with the liquor problem. Some of us are, because of our small success, pessimistic, some entirely lethargic, some disposed to a compromise, and some are earnest and aggressive upon this supreme reform.

Our agitation, our crusades and phenomenal pledge movements, our temperance organizations, while good and influential, have fallen short of the solution of the question. And not even measures regulative and restrictive have proven sufficient. The State has licensed the saloon, but has not curtailed the business. The effect of this method has been to make the traffic respectable and to secure its friendship. We have taxed the saloon, but the traffic still exists, and the business in bad morals and bad citizens and bad government goes on. And this will ever be the case under either license or tax, because they are wrong in principle, and place the State in the strange position of trying to restrict a bad thing by giving it sanction and legalization. The liquor traffic is a great moral evil, and against it the Church and ministry should put themselves in battle array. Their warfare must be aggressive and ceaseless, and for its extermination. The Church, through her ministry, by means of the pulpit and the press, must be diligent in utilizing all the resources at her command in creating not only a sound and intelligent moral sentiment, but in unifying and consolidating that sentiment. Soft words will not do. Occasional references will not answer. A fear of the man who believes in license and taxation, or who sits in Congress or spends his Winters at the State capital, must be overcome. The pulpit and the religious press must bring the question of the saloon to the front, and state it as the supreme reform of the hour.

But the liquor traffic is more than a moral evil—it is a crime, and as such has a political character. The question is a political problem, and a question of such magnitude to the welfare of the individual, to the family and to the commonwealth, as to demand special consideration. Instead, therefore, of being made a means for the securing of office; instead of being thought and treated as a subordinate issue, the time has come, when, for all reasons that can be considered, it should be lifted into prominence as a question for the study and consideration and legislation of those whom our suffrages make the servants of the State and ministers to her weal.

We believe, for the cure of this gigantic evil, in moral suasion, but also in legal suasion. We believe in adequate legislation, such as is not found either in license or taxation, but in such legislation as looks to and will secure the prohibition of the importation, the manufacture and the sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage.

Resolved, 1. That it is the imperative duty of the State to suppress entirely, by efficient legislation, the crime of the liquor traffic.

Resolved, 2. That the constitutional and legal prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors is the only efficient legislation against the saloon.

Resolved, 3. That license and taxation, as remedies for the liquor crime, are unquestionable failures, and have served to perpetuate and dignify the business.

Resolved, 4. That we earnestly deplore and openly condemn the effort made by many politicians and statesmen to lower the dignity and the moral and political bearing and importance of this question before the eyes of the world.

Resolved, 5. That we invoke the blessing of Almighty God upon the great moral reform, and that we will do our utmost to secure the co-operation of all persons for the constitutional and legal prohibition of the rum traffic.

E. D. WHITLOCK, Secretary.

JAS. C. CLEMONS, Chairman.

X. ON CHURCH PERIODICALS.

We gratefully acknowledge that the periodicals of our Church have been a potent factor in the development of our common Methodism, the strengthening of Christian character, and the spread of our holy religion.

We rejoice to know that the circulation of our periodicals is constantly increasing; still, we recognize the fact that there is an increasing demand for a greater circulation of pure literature to supplant the pernicious literature finding its way into the homes and hands of the people, therefore,

Resolved, That whilst we will be loyal to all our Church publications, we will make renewed effort to increase the circulation of the Western Christian Advocate. Let a paper for every Methodist home, and our literature for every Methodist Sunday School, be the watch cry.

XI. ON LAKESIDE.

Lakeside is enlarging its borders. This year the Cincinnati Conference has been added to the patronizing Conferences, and has elected Trustees to represent it in the management. This gives five Annual Conferences in co-operation and patronage of Lakeside.

We are glad to be able to report that this great Christian enterprise has enjoyed this year, the eighteenth of its existence, the most prosperous season of any in its history.

Notwithstanding the immense work connected with the enlargement of the hotel and extension of the dock, along with other improvements, all was ready for an early opening, and the season was extended to more than the usual length.

The Summer School, under the direction of Prof. Nelson, of Ohio

Wesleyan University, and Supt. Zeller, of Findlay, was again successful in attendance and interest. Beside this, the State Teachers' Association held a large and enthusiastic convention here. These gatherings, along with the regular programme of the Encampment, made Lakeside a center of wide-spread educational interests.

The experiment was tried this season of a continued and unbroken programme, presenting all the causes represented on the platform, intermingled with each other, instead of separate meetings for each cause, although each cause had its separate day or days, and the experiment must be regarded as a success. The Sunday School Encampment of former years became the Lakeside Encampment, simply to distinguish it from the camp-meeting, for the latter retained all its distinguishing traits as in other years. The Encampment was again, and for the eleventh time, under the Superintendence of Rev. B. T. Vincent, of Pueblo, Colorado. There was a larger attendance at the opening and to the close than in any former year. Dr. Vincent conducted alone the work of normal instruction, and Mrs. Vincent had charge of the Children's Department, both with the marked success which has attended their work in the past.

The Normal Alumni reunion was never so great a success as this year. The address on this occasion was by Superintendent Vincent. The same prominence can be given to Recognition Day, when Dr. D. H. Moore, of the Western Christian Advocate, made an excellent address, and thirty-five Chautauqua graduates passed under the arches and through the golden gates which admitted them to well-earned diplomas and to enrollment among the 22,000 who have passed through the four years' course of the C. L. S. C.

The music was again under the charge of Prof. Bruce M. Myers, and gave the same great satisfaction as it gave last year. And this applies to the leading and instruction of Prof. Myers, to the solo and chorus singing, to the fine, full orchestra, and to the pianist, Miss Lulu Myers, who by her modesty of demeanor and her prompt and competent playing won the deserved praises of thousands of listeners.

The high order of the lectures and entertainments of the programme was attested by the very large attendance and interest of the people, and their oft-repeated expressions of pleasure and approval.

A Kindergarten class was taught again this year, in Bradley temple, by Mrs. Roebuck, and was so increased over last year that even this commodious place was too small for its accommodation.

The spiritual element of the Encampment was noticeable. The devotional services, held each morning from 8 to 9 o'clock, were largely attended, and were always sessions of deep, earnest, spiritual worship.

The annual camp-meeting was again in charge of Dr. Leroy A. Belt, the energetic President of the Camp-meeting Association. A change was made from last year in conducting the meeting. This year there was no announcement, previous to the camp-meeting, of those who were to preach from day to day, and the plan seemed to be more satisfactory. Evangelist C. H. Yatman was present throughout the camp-meeting, and had charge of the altar exercises and other special services. The camp-meetings on these consecrated grounds have always been fruitful in the conversion of sinners and the spiritual quickening and upbuilding of believers, and Lakeside has from the beginning enjoyed the marked favor of the presence and power of the Holy Spirit in its meetings. As all other features of this remarkable enterprise was born of the camp-meeting, it is our prayer and hope that they may all continue to receive spiritual tone and vigor from it.

We were highly favored this year with the presence and efficient aid, at the camp-meeting, of our beloved General Superintendent, Bishop Andrews, and also of Bishop Taylor, who gave inspiration and a heavenly uplift to all who heard them.

The German camp-meeting was this season, as in all former years, a time of great spiritual power and success in the work of soul-saving. They go there for that specific purpose, and so get what they go there for. They never fail to have a revival and get souls converted when they go to Lakeside. The first soul converted at a camp-meeting at Lakeside was a German, who was deeply convicted under an English sermon of which he scarcely understood a word.

IMPROVEMENTS.

The principal of these are the enlargement of the hotel to almost double its former capacity, so that with a small additional help the income was more than doubled; also the extension of the dock to such deep water that the largest lake boats can land with safety even in stormy weather. These improvements cost the Company $21,000, but the experience of this year endorses the wisdom of the outlay. There have been about twenty-five cottages erected this season, and more than this number are contemplated in the year to come, as a large number of lots have been sold this year. Several important improvements are already projected for the coming year. The Independent Order of Good Templars has secured lots and a large part of the funds to erect a building for their use, of brick, to cost $4,000. About one-half the money is raised to build an Alumni Hall by the Normal and C. L. S. C. graduates, and the initiative was this year taken to erect a building as headquarters for the Epworth League, in architecture after the style of the Epworth rectory, the birthplace of the Wesleys.

A stock company of $10,000 is organized and operating to supply Lakeside with electric light, and also a more abundant water supply for the use of the grounds and fire protection, which will be a large improvement.

The management stands firm in its conviction and intention to still keep the gates closed on the Sabbath day, although they suffer a loss, annually, of many hundreds of dollars by this adherence to their convictions of right on this subject. The right will win in the end. "Them that honor me, I will honor."

The financial results this year are so many times larger than in any previous year that it is highly encouraging to those who have its charge and responsibility upon them. The company has property and cash assets amounting to fully $75,000 over and above all its liabilities.

We recommend that the following be elected Trustees for two years: Ministers—Adam C. Barnes, D. D., Isaiah R. Henderson, D. D., and Charles W. Taneyhill, A. M. Laymen—Richard Bell, of Port Clinton, Prof. J. W. Zeller, of Findlay, and B. H. Jacobs, of Lakeside.

We approve of the suggestion now before the Board of Trustees to change the time of the annual meeting of the Board from November, and hold it on the grounds at Lakeside during the time of the meetings there.

We do not favor the employment of evangelists at the camp-meeting, but do approve of securing the attendance of our Bishops and other eminent Christian ministers to preach at the meetings, and recommend the employment of home talent as far as practicable, and express the conviction that those who preach at the camp-meetings from our patronizing Conferences should do so without compensation.

XII. ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE MINUTES AND LOCAL PREACHERS.

Minutes of three District Conferences only were presented to us for examination, viz: Toledo, Findlay and Bellefontaine. These were carefully written and topically arranged.

The Secretary of Defiance District vouched for the minutes of that Conference. The minutes of the other Districts were not presented for examination.

The committee desires to call the attention of the Secretaries of the District Conferences to the requirement of the Discipline that the minutes are to be brought to the Annual Conference for examination.

By the assistance of the Annual Conference Secretary the committee were enabled to secure a complete list of local preachers.

W. E. COLLETT, Chairman. B. N. BOARDMAN, Secretary.

XIII. ON EPISCOPAL FUND.

During the year 1889, $8,124.83 more was expended for the support of the Bishops than was received from the Church. The death of three Bishops during the quadrennium ending May 1st, 1888, and the consequent reduction of the claims upon the Episcopal Fund created a surplus from which this deficiency has been met. This surplus is now nearly exhausted, and, unless the Conferences greatly increase their contributions for the support of the Bishops, their salaries cannot be paid in full.

The amount apportioned to this Conference for the year now closing is $1,793. Of this amount $1,404 have been paid, which is $142 less than was paid last year, and leaves a deficiency of $389.

The amount apportioned to us for next year is the same as last,

$1,793. We recommend that it be apportioned to the several Districts on the basis of the amount received this year for ministerial support, viz:

Bellefontaine District	$ 262
Defiance "	314
Delaware "	293
Findlay "	306
Lima "	274
Toledo "	344
Total	$1,793

Respectfully submitted,

D. H. BAILEY, Secretary.

WM. DEAL, Chairman.

XIV. ON CLAIMS ON THE BOOK CONCERN.

The Committee on Claims on the Book Concern offer the following report:

We have seen the agent's accounts, which show that up to this date only about 52 per cent. of the money due from members of this Conference has been paid. However, nearly all of those still owing have made arrangements with the agent present at this Conference for the settlement of their accounts in the near future, therefore

Resolved, That all delinquents speedily fulfill their promises and meet their obligations.

G. B. WILTSIE, Secretary.

FREDERICK MILLER, Chairman.

XV. ON CHURCH EXTENSION.

Our hearts have been made greatly to rejoice at the wonderful progress made in building new churches under the auspices of the Church Extension Society, the Secretaries showing that 7,269 churches had been aided by them in the past ten months, reaching nearly the great song prophecy of Chaplain McCabe, "We're building three a day." We also rejoice that by the officers of this Society the most vigorous efforts are being made to plant churches on our frontiers, as well as throughout all our Methodism.

We are pleased to know that notwithstanding the great financial depression of the year there has been given by our Conference to this noble cause $1,943, being an advance of $243 over the preceding year.

Resolved, That as a Conference we pledge ourselves to increased diligence to raise the full amount apportioned to us for the Church Extension Society this coming year.

WM. G. LITTELL, Secretary.

XVI. ON EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Methodism has not only the honor of being the mother of many children but also of numerous nurseries and devices for the rearing of her children in piety and propagandism. The genius of this form of religion to propagate itself universally for the salvation of this world's lost millions is not more marked than its adaptation of means for the culture of its children and adherents. When, in the fullness of time, the people called Methodists felt the needs of a fixed social means of grace, the class-meeting was instituted. When, again, at a considerably later period, a new agency was needed which should emphasize literary culture equally with the religious life, the Chautauqua movement was born of Methodist parentage; and, later yet, when it was felt that a connectional home circle for the young and middle-aged of our Methodist communities was needed—a society with sufficient flexibility of methods to actively enlist young persons of many different types, tastes and attainments, the Epworth League came forth. Of all of Methodism's evolutions, none promises greater honor to the mother who bore it, greater usefulness to the members who are enlisted in it, or greater potency as an agency for uplifting the young life of the Church, than this latest product of Methodism—the Epworth League.

Beginning, as it did, less than a year and a half ago, on a foundation resulting from the dissolution of five previously existing young people's societies within our Methodism, which were expected to give place to this union, one would naturally expect slow progress for such a time as might be necessary for former alliances to be dissolved and the readjustment to take place. But what is our happy astonishment to find over 3,500 chapters now enrolled! Truly a marvelous growth in so short a time. And the end is not yet. With much of our own territory unorganized and many of our young people having societies of Christian Endeavor to be brought into closer relations to our League, the future is bright with hope for continued growth, until all of our Methodist young people shall answer to one roll-call, and all be connected with one headquarters. It should certainly receive the hearty co-operation of our ministers and official laymen. We believe the League should take precedence as a society for Methodist young people, over all possible competitors, and wherein other such societies have gotten a start among us, all should be led, as soon as possible, to resolve themselves into Epworth Leagues.

In order to encourage and expedite further organization, we resolve as follows:

1. That there should be a District organization in each of our six Districts, and a Committee on Epworth League at each Annual Conference session.

2. That we regard the establishment of an Epworth Department in the Western Book Concern, under the superintendency of Rev. M. D. Carrel, as timely and needed.

3. That the changes brought about the past year, whereby the Epworth Herald absorbed Our Youth and became an organ of the League in every way worthy of support, are in the line of progress, and we recommend the Herald to our young people. We believe that the removal of the office of publication to the West was for the interest of the League and the paper, and we rejoice to learn of enlarged circulation. Dr. J. F. Berry is making the Herald pre-eminently useful to its constituency, and as a new editor among us is not second to many in our editorial ranks.

4. That we learn with pleasure of the election of our brother, Rev. J. M. Mills, by the Fifth General Conference District Convention, held in Columbus, O., last June, as our Conference Secretary, and we give him our hearty endorsement.

5. That we also learn with pleasure of the project to build an Epworth headquarters at Lakeside in exact fac simile of the original Epworth Rectory, and we recommend liberal contributions from our people and Leagues toward its erection, as soon as the Board of Trustees shall have met and devised plans and methods.

E. G. BRUMBAUGH, Secretary.

W. S. PHILPOTT, Chairman.

MEMOIRS.

REV. TAYLOR I. JAGGER.

TAYLOR IRVIN JAGGER was born in Allen Co., O., March 23, 1850, and died at Huntsville, O., September 24, 1889. At seventeen he was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church at Rockport, Allen Co., O., under the labors of Charles Ashton, pastor. Early in his Christian life he felt called to preach the Gospel, and began his preparation for that great work, spending some time both at Berea and Delaware. In young manhood he was licensed to exhort at Kingsley Chapel, South Ada Circuit, where, later on, he was also licensed to preach. He married Miss Nannie E. Freet, Nov. 25, 1875, and for fourteen years they dwelt happily together, God blessing their union with seven children, the eldest of whom went to dwell with the angels six years before her father. During the Autumn of 1875, Brother Jagger was appointed to supply North Ada Mission, which Charge he traveled for two years, God greatly blessing his ministry in the salvation of the people. At the Conference of 1877, he was appointed to Newton Circuit, in Union Co. At the end of his first year on this Charge he was received on probation in the Central Ohio Conference, in 1878, and was appointed for a second year to Newton. He was ordained Deacon in September, 1879, by Bishop Simpson, and was appointed to Ridgeway, where he served two years. He was received into full membership in September, 1880, and was ordained Elder at Sidney, O., in 1882. In addition to the Charges already named, he served also the following: New Dover, two years; Vanlue, three years; Rushsylvania, one year, and Huntsville, two years, making in all fourteen years in the itinerancy. As a preacher, Brother Jagger was practical and experimental rather than speculative. Toward all forms of evil he was uncompromising and fearless in their denunciation. He never stopped to count the cost to himself, if truth needed defense or error rebuke. His preaching was of a character to awaken and convict; consequently, on all his Charges his labors were crowned with large revivals, resulting in the conversion of sinners and in higher attainments in the divine life among Christians. It was not an infrequent thing for him to open up new work, preaching in school houses and organizing societies which have since become well-established congregations, having substantial church edifices. But he did not confine himself to evangelistic work alone. All the interests of the Church received his attention. Old debts were paid, new churches were built and old ones improved, and the benevolences were usually largely increased. About the first of August, 1889, Brother Jagger was taken sick, although he occupied his pulpit for two Sundays thereafter. He grew worse and was quite ill, but by the time the Conference convened at Upper Sandusky, he had so far recovered that it was thought he would be able to be present before the Conference adjourned. He did not come; but at the close of the Conference his name was announced as having been appointed to Middlepoint, in Lima District. Meanwhile a great change had taken place in the parsonage at Huntsville, and before the preachers had reached their homes the great Bishop of souls had reversed the earthly appointment, and Brother Jagger was called to a higher appointment and a more glorious service. During his illness he was visited by a number of his ministerial brethren, who found him hopeful and patient. He had a great desire to live, and was especially concerned for the education of his children; but, by the help of divine grace, he was enabled to yield submissively to the will of the Father. To Brother Albritton, who was with him just a short time before his death, he said: "Jesus saves me. I am sustained by the Gospel I have preached." To his stricken family he gave most comforting assurances of the hope he had of heaven, affectionately exhorting them to lean upon God, who would care for them. His last words were, "All is right." Thus Taylor I. Jagger fell asleep in Jesus. Funeral services, in charge of Dr. Belt, were held in the Methodist Church at Huntsville, on Wednesday, September 25th, Revs. Bennett and Albritton, of Bellefontaine, assisting. The body was then taken to Rockport, and, in the same church in which he was converted, a second service was held, September 26th, by Rev. E. S. Dunham, assisted by Rev. L. O. Cook and the writer, after which the earthly house was laid away to await the redemption of the body. A wife and six small children sorrow in hope.

D. F. HELMS.

REV. JOSIAH F. CROOKS.

REV. JOSIAH F. CROOKS departed this life at Elida, O., on Sunday morning, May 11th, 1890, after an illness of two months' duration. He had been a sufferer for many years from an army wound, and about eight weeks before his death he was overtaken by a complication of diseases of the vital organs, from which it soon became evident that he could not recover. On Sabbath morning, May 11th, just as the day was breaking, the Silent Messenger from the unseen shore laid his hand upon him and he fell asleep in the inspiring faith of the Master in whose service he had been constantly engaged as a Christian minister for almost a quarter of a century.

Rev. Crooks was born in Warren township, Tuscarawas Co., O., June 28th, 1830. He was married to Catherine Walters, October 9th, 1851, and removed to Carroll Co., O., in April, 1853. His pursuit at that time was farming in Summer and teaching in Winter. He enlisted in the Union army August 9th, 1862, under Capt. A. J. Thomas, and went to Camp Mingo, near Steubenville, O., August 18th, following. He was mustered into the service August 21st, in what formed company H, 98th Ohio Volunteer Infantry. He left the camp with his company August 23rd and crossed the Ohio river at Cincinnati, and on the 30th of August was under fire on the Kentucky river. Having enlisted as a private, he was promoted to fourth and first sergeant. He was wounded in the battle of Perrysville, Ky., October 8th, 1862, but stayed with his company, and on March 24th, 1864, he was promoted to the chaplaincy of the regiment, which he held until the close of the war, a period of some fifteen months or more.

He participated in the various campaigns and was under fire on many a field of battle, from the engagement at Perrysville to the fall of Atlanta. It was his privilege to accompany Sherman's army on its memorable march to the sea and up through the Carolinas, fighting his last in the battle of Bentonville. With loyal pride and with swelling heart he marched in the grand review at Washington, and was mustered out of the service at the Capital of the Nation on the last day of May, 1865, and finally discharged, at Cleveland, O., on the ninth day of June following, having been in the service nearly three years.

On leaving the army he removed to Van Wert and soon afterward entered the Christian ministry, always standing high in that profession, and ever proving as intensely devoted to the cause of the Master as he had been to the cause of his imperiled country in the dark days of rebellion, treason and gloom. He was always a large-hearted, whole-souled man, an estimable friend and an earnest and conscientious preacher of the Gospel.

He entered upon his work in the ministry in the Methodist Church in the Fall of 1866. His first Charge was at Coldwater, Mercer Co., O., at which place he remained during the ensuing Conference year. The following is a list of appointments where he labored in the Christian ministry during the rest of his life:

Elida, two years; St. John's, two years; Columbus Grove, one year; Bluffton, two years; Port Jefferson, two years; Van Wert, three years; St. Mary's, one year; Belle Centre, one year; Zanesfield, one year; Middlepoint, two years; Mendon, one year; Lima (Grace), three years. At the time of his death he was engaged in his second year's work at Elida, having been sent to that place a second time.

The exact number of persons converted under his preaching is not known, but would probably not fall short of fifteen hundred, for during his first appointment at Elida there were more than eighty accessions to the Church.

He was an eloquent defender of the flag of his country, delivering many patriotic addresses on Decoration Days and other National holidays, often weaving in his own personal experience in such a way as to thrill his audience with the most intense feeling. His earnestness and enthusiasm as an orator made him a great favorite at soldiers' reunions, where he often delivered his characteristic addresses. His loyalty and devotion to his country's cause always impelled him to exercise the right of suffrage, and he rarely, if ever, failed to cast his vote.

He was the father of five children, all grown to maturity, and four of whom are living. Robert L., the oldest, is engaged in the practice of medicine at Convoy, O. William W. is agent for the P., Ft. W. & C. railroad at Ada. Laura A. is now the wife of John Craft, a banker, at Geneva, Ind., while Eva Luella, the youngest, has remained with her parents, aiding them and assisting them in their work. The other daughter, Anna, was a zealous laborer in the Church and Sabbath School, but broke down in the work of teaching, and died at Zanesfield, in 1882.

As a husband and father, Rev. Crooks was always kind and affectionate, ever considerate of the welfare of his family. While he never sought wealth, he was ambitious to lay up treasures which time and the world could not destroy. As a minister of the Gospel, he was eminently successful in leading his people aright. He was not only successful in building up and increasing the membership of his Church, but also in erecting new temples of worship. He had taken upon himself the work of raising money to build a new church at Elida, and while his life was not prolonged to see that work completed, he did live to see the contract for the building let and the work well under way.

His social qualities were of the highest order, and it might be said of him in truth that he made a friend of every one he met, and saw in each something to attract his interest and care. While the community and Church have lost a most valuable member and the family their mainstay and protector, they have the assurance, in his own language, as used on a recent occasion, "That, though his body be destroyed and become food for the worms of the dust, a richer reward remains for him above." To know Brother Crooks was to admire and love him for his sterling qualities. He loved the Church dearly and consecrated all his powers to promote her best interests. I visited him several times in his sickness and found him peaceful and hopeful. He had a great desire to live for his family's sake and for the sake of the Church. The new church building was on his heart and mind. He had his Charge with all its interests on his heart during his sickness. He lost his utterance some time before his death. At the request of his companion, after utterance left him, we gathered around his bed and offered prayer. As we prayed his lips moved and the tears flowed and were wiped away by his heart-stricken companion. If he could have spoken we know that he would have given utterance to his peace of soul and the hope of heaven. I commend his wife and family to the prayers and sympathies of this Conference.

REV. WILLIAM HARRIS TAYLOR.

REV. WILLIAM HARRIS TAYLOR was born in Washington Co., Pa., September 27, 1825. Died at his home in Bryan, O., September 5, 1890.

On August 11, 1853, he was united in marriage to Rachel Lewis. Henceforth their lives flowed sweetly on together, as two united rivers flow onward to the sea. Of this union, now in manhood, were born two sons.

His religious life began while he was yet a mere child; indeed, so early did he choose the way of righteousness that it has been said "he was always religious." When he was twenty-two years of age he came to Coshocton Co., O., shortly after entering Martinsburg Academy, where he recited with Hon. Wm. Windom, now Secretary of the United States Treasury, and Rev. George W. Money, a deceased member of this Conference.

While a student, in 1847, he enlisted in company G, Second Ohio Infantry, and went with his regiment to Mexico, where he participated in the siege of Vera Cruz. His health failing, he was honorably discharged, brought back across the Gulf of Mexico swung in a hammock, more dead than alive. From the effects of his soldier life he has ever since been a sufferer.

He was licensed to preach in the year 1850. On June 7, 1851, his license was renewed, signed by Samuel Lynch, P. E., of Mt. Vernon District, and he was recommended to the Conference for a traveling minister, and in the Fall of that year he was received by the Conference on trial. He was ordained Deacon at Mt. Vernon, in 1853, by Bishop Morris, and Elder at Sandusky City, in 1855, by Bishop Scott. In 1861 his health failed and he took a Superannuated relation, living in Montpelier and then in Bryan, O. Soon after the Conference of 1862 he was given work by the Presiding Elder, and at the succeeding Conference he was made Effective and appointed to Richwood, O. In 1872, because of impaired health, which unfitted him for the work of the pulpit, he took a Supernumerary relation and traveled in the interests of the American Bible Society, which position he filled until the Conference of 1879, when he gave up all hope of ever being able to do again the work of a pastor and asked for and received a Superannuated relation. His first Charge was at Port Clinton, O. His last embraced what is now a portion of the Liberty Center Charge. Here he had a great revival, and, as a result, a church was built, and although the honor was unsought and even unknown to him, the grateful people gave it the name of "Taylor's Chapel." While a resident of Bryan he took an active interest in the affairs of the local Church, serving it loyally in every capacity to which he was assigned. His life was simple, plain and unaffected.

On September 5th, at five o'clock, just as all nature was awakening to a beautiful morning, the light of that City which hath no need of the sun fell upon the vision of this man of God. Calmly he went through life, so, calmly, without even a shudder, he laid it down.

G. H. PRIDDY.

MRS. JOHN W. MILLER.

SUSIE HEDGES MOORE, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Moore, was born at Shane's Crossing, Mercer Co., O., February 21st, 1847. She was the daughter of pious parents and her life began in a Christian home and under holy influences. She was taught to pray, but divine things took hold upon her infant affections and, under the Spirit's call, she gave herself to God, was converted and joined the Church at the early age of ten years. She spent her early years and all the formative period of her life in the service of the Master, and reached womanhood adorned with the Christian graces and holy virtues that belong to a mature Christian character.

In the year 1867 she was married to the Rev. John W. Miller, a member of the Central Ohio Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and for twenty-two years she shared the toils and trials, the joys and sorrows incident to an itinerant minister's life. These twenty-two years were spent in the following Charges: Antwerp, East Toledo, DeGraff, Ottawa, Fremont, Port Clinton, Upper Sandusky, St. Mary's, Hicksville, and Monroe Street, Toledo.

To Brother and Sister Miller were born two children. The first was a son that only tarried for a little while and then went home to God. The other was little Gracie, who was loved by her now sainted mother with a depth of affection only known to the maternal heart and is now the object of a fond father's special care.

For more than twenty years Sister Miller was a great sufferer. During the most of these long years she was an invalid, but she never murmured. The Christian does not even suffer in vain, and the graces that seem to come to the child of God only through suffering were hers to a large degree. It is true that her life was subdued by what she suffered, and she retired from many of the more active duties of the social circle and the Church; but her love for all that had a rightful claim upon her heart never suffered loss. When unable to attend divine service, she always spent the hour in prayer for God's blessing on all the people and the worship of His sanctuary. In the furnace of affliction she learned patience, gentleness and charity. They made her life and her home radiant with joy and peace. An exceedingly chaste and sensitive spirit and a conscientious regard for all the details that are essential to the comfort of a Christian home were the characteristics of her daily life, and as the morning light turns the darkness into day, so her gentle spirit dispelled all gloom and made home happy.

During the last year of Sister Miller's life her health was greatly improved and for a time gave inspiration to the hope that possibly she might again enjoy the health and vigor of early life. But suddenly and unexpectedly to her and to all, without a moment's warning or a farewell word, she fell asleep, September 30th, 1889, aged forty-two years, seven months and nine days. Sister Miller did not know that death was near, but she was ready. Twice before, after coming forth from a like shadow, she said, "I could not have been more ready, had I known I was to die." She lived in a state of readiness to depart and be with Christ. On the morning of September 30th, 1889—that last morning that her earthly presence was to glorify her home—it was she who led in family prayer. She did not know it was to be her last, but, devoutly kneeling at the family altar, with a tenderness, a trust and an inspiration born of the Spirit's presence, she commended her household, her husband, her child and herself to God, and at noon she passed away. Across the record of such a life God has written in letters of living light, "To live is Christ and to die is gain."

The funeral services were held in the Monroe Street Church, Toledo, O., October 2nd, 1889. They were conducted by the Presiding Elder, Rev. Parker P. Pope, assisted by Rev. S. L. Roberts, Rev. E. D. Whitlock, D. D., Rev. L. C. Webster and the writer, and her body was tenderly laid to rest in Woodlawn cemetery, to await the resurrection of the just. J. H. BETHARDS.

MRS. DAVID BOWERS.

MRS. DAVID BOWERS, wife of Rev. David Bowers, was born near Harrod, Allen Co., O., June 5, 1846, and died in Kingman, Kan., Feb. 24, 1890, leaving her husband and a little daughter of about ten summers. In the several Charges filled by her husband in the Central Ohio and Kansas Conferences, she never failed to perform well her functions as the wife of an itinerant minister. In the home she was neat, frugal, vigilant, hospitable, kind and industrious. Her husband was ever received by her to a home where all care from outer life might soon be forgotten, or the more easily borne, because of home's sacredness and orderly conduct. She shared with him the hard work of what makes success on hard circuits, and no less easier filled stations, without complaint, but with good cheer and genuine courage, interested in all that interested her husband. The remains were brought to Ada, O., for interment, and the funeral was attended by a large concourse of citizens and Revs. G. Lease, Daniel Carter, I. R. Henderson, J. M. Longfellow, L. Herbert and the writer.

LEROY A. BELT.

MRS. GERSHOM LEASE.

ELIZABETH REXROTH LEASE, wife of Rev. Gershom Lease, of the Central Ohio Conference, was born in Marion Co., O., May 20th, 1840, but early in life she moved with her parents to Bucyrus, O., where she grew up to womanhood. The whole family being trained to habits of industry, the boys early engaged in business, but the girls, while equally diligent in their lines of industry, found both time and means to acquire a good education.

After completing the course in the schools of Bucyrus, Elizabeth became a teacher in country schools, and at the same time diligently studied the higher branches, and then entered Mt. Union College, where she graduated with honor in 1869. After graduation, she was elected a teacher in Bucyrus, where she had lived from childhood.

Her parents were members of the German Methodist Church, and diligently taught their children the principles and duties of the Christian religion, and in her eighteenth year Miss Rexroth sought and found salvation, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Having been trained to habits of industry, and to practice the strictest precepts of morality, and having also acquired a keen relish for study, all these immediately showed themselves in the higher forms of her religious life; the religious duties of the closet and the family, together with the social and public means of grace, were regularly attended to and diligently improved; the Bible became a daily study, and its heavenly teachings were appropriated with such zest and intelligence as to become incorporated in her very being, giving such richness to her experience and such solidity, soundness and steadiness to her religious life that she never vacillated or even thought of it, but was "grounded and settled and not moved away from the hope of the Gospel." But the gifts and graces mentioned not only gave to Miss Rexroth a rich and solid religious experience, but fitted her for rare usefulness in the Church.

It was the privilege of the writer to be her pastor three years at Bucyrus. In all the ranges of church service, duty and privilege she could be depended upon, and she was present not simply to make one more, but to make her presence felt for good and God and souls.

As plainly as the hand of God could point, she was intended for a higher sphere, and on September 6th, 1870, Rev. Gershom Lease and Miss Elizabeth Rexroth were united in holy wedlock, and for nineteen years they journeyed together the pathway of life, and shared all the diversities of life in the Methodist itineracy.

There is the same diversity of taste, temper, talent, education and disposition in ministers' wives as in ministers themselves. Mrs. Lease was not a talker, an evangelist, an organizer of circles, a director of church fairs, nor even a "society lady." All these have their places and spheres, but not one of them was the sphere of our subject.

That a lady who was so talented, educated and trained as was Mrs. Lease could talk, even those not acquainted with her might assume, but her talking was neither for the pulpit, the platform, nor for public meetings of any kind. She could address a meeting of ladies, or even a promiscuous assembly, if she consented to do so, and never hesitated to testify for Jesus in class meetings or love-feast; yet her quiet and retiring disposition inclined her to silence when others would speak.

Papers and essays on almost any subject, literary, scientific, social, benevolent or religious, she could both write and read—essays that would rank well anywhere. In society, Mrs. Lease was not an expert in chit-chat, but in solid, sensible, consecutive and profitable conversation, she was one to whom intelligent company looked for a leader. In counseling and planning for the church work of ladies, she was fertile, wise and reliable, and when she spoke in religious meetings those who knew her listened, not simply because she was the minister's wife, but because they knew she had something profitable to say.

These qualities gave her weight, influence and dignity in every Charge she and her husband filled, made her an efficient teacher of Bible classes, and the Church felt itself honored in having such a pastor's wife.

There was another field in which Mrs. Lease's special abilities found scope, and, though in some respects it was more personal and unobserved, the silent influence worked its way into a broader and more public field, where it was felt without its real source being known. This was in the pulpit ministrations of her husband. She was too much of a woman to even wish to be a man, and appreciated her own place too highly to try to take the place belonging to some body else; and yet, grand a man and able a minister as we all know our dear Brother Lease to be, he is now much more of both than he ever would have been but for his noble wife. With her extensive knowledge, refined literary taste, thorough education and rich religious experience, she sat under his ministry as a devout Christian to receive the word of the Lord and to be instructed in divine things, while, at the same time, influenced by the heart of a true wife, she looked and listened with the eye and ear of a friendly critic, so that the pastor's Sunday dinner was oftened seasoned with something that did both him and his people good.

Three years prior to her death, Mrs. Lease was stricken with disease which became most painful, it gradually undermined the vital forces, and, in spite of the most skillful medical treatment, did its work of tearing down the earthly tabernacle. During those three years hope and fear alternated, earnest prayer was offered to Him who "heareth always," and, though the destroyer was permitted to do his work unchecked, grace was given according to the day.

Three weeks before her death there came that occurrence which comes so often in the life of a Methodist minister—the removal. Four years of a successful and harmonious pastorate at Ada were ended. With aching hearts and tearful eyes pastor and wife bade adieu to those they dearly loved, and had just begun work on their new Charge, Upper Sandusky, when the Master plainly said to Sister Lease "It is enough." Forty-eight hours before she died she heard this voice, quietly gave up the heroic struggle for earthly life, told her husband that the inevitable was near at hand, and with Christian fortitude turned her face toward the eternal future. With her husband she quietly talked over the arrangement for the funeral, calmly spoke of her unshaken faith in God, her realization of Christ as her present Savior, assurance of a blissful immortality, and on early morn of October 19th, 1889, the liberated spirit winged its flight to realms of glory and the body began the sleep that knows no waking until God shall call it forth to the united and immortal life of heaven.

ISAAC NEWTON.

MRS. JOSEPH M. AVANN.

ELLA MARIA, wife of Rev. Joseph M. Avann, A. M., was born in Acworth, N. H., October 27, 1851, and died in Findlay, O., April 19, 1890. When eighteen years old she removed to South Farmingham, Mass., where she became acquainted with Rev. J. M. Avann, a graduate of Baldwin University, and then a theological student of Boston University, who was the first to introduce Methodism into South Farmingham. She was one of the charter members of the Church which he there organized, and a few months later they were married. For fourteen years she served as pastor's wife in the New England Conference; then they were transferred to the New Hampshire Conference, and were stationed at St. Paul's Church, Manchester. A three years' pastorate ended, they returned to the New England Conference, and were stationed for three years at Waltham, Mass. Brother Avann was transferred to the First Church in Findlay, O., Central Ohio Conference, in harmony with the unanimous request of that official board. Mrs. Avann had been sorely afflicted for years, and it was fondly hoped that a change of climate, by escaping from New England's rigorous Winters and ocean storms, would work relief; but their anticipations were not realized. The long-time invalid steadily failed; the vital forces could not rally, and in exactly one year from the day of her arrival in Findlay the tired hands were laid to rest, and the pure spirit, washed in the blood of the Lamb, and chastened by earth's suffering and grief, regained its long-sought rest. Thrice she had followed her babes to the narrow house; now she leaves her husband, and two daughters, just turned into womanhood, to follow her. Mrs. Avann was a woman of unusual attractiveness and worth. Her life and character were beautifully molded, and richly dowered with those graces of the head and heart so becoming the bride of Christ, that to her family and friends she was "as a very lovely song of one that hath a pleasant voice." She was a tower of strength in her home. "The heart of her husband safely trusted in her, and her children, in time to come, will rise up and call her blessed." The precious dust was conveyed to Southbridge, Mass., for burial. A. C. BARNES.

MRS. LILLIE B. SHREVES.

LILLIE BIRDSALL SHREVES, daughter of Dr. C. L. Westenburg, of Cleveland, and sister of Rev. Charles Westenburg, of the North Ohio Conference, was born at Pittsburgh, Pa., March 30th, 1858.

Reared in a Christian home, she was converted when sixteen years of age, at Berea, O., under the ministry of Rev. J. E. Broadwell. It was her privilege for three years about this time to be in the family of Dr. William Nast, to which associations she looked back in after years with great pleasure as one source from which had been derived much of the inspiration and love for the Master's work. Her Christian experience was very bright and clear from the time of her conversion. She grew rapidly in grace and godliness, and in those early years of her religious life gave herself wholly unto the Lord in a complete consecration, to be and to do whatever He might ask, and to go wherever duty might direct to work for Christ and human souls.

On Nov. 1st, 1877, she was united in marriage to Charles Melville Birdsall, a graduate of Baldwin University, who was appointed as supply at Scott Town, in the Central Ohio Conference, in the Fall of 1877. Thus she began her active ministerial life among those who were to see it close. At the annual Conference following, which met at Wauseon, September 18th, 1878, our departed sister and her husband offered to go at once to the pioneer work at Aspinwall, on the Isthmus of Panama. They set sail within ten days—September 30th, 1878—unauthorized by the Church, not privileged to bear the much desired relation of Conference membership, but commissioned by the Lord and the heroic, self-appointed William Taylor, who, that they might have all needed authority in the far-off field, commissioned Brother Birdsall with full powers of authority in the ministry and gave him a certificate of his ordination. They went out, like Melville Cox, to face almost certain death. They were fully informed that the Isthmus of Darien had the reputation of being the most unhealthy place in the world, but the brave man with his quiet, youthful and heroic wife said: "We are not afraid. God can take care of us there as well as anywhere else, and it is just as near from Aspinwall to heaven as from any more favored spot." They reached Panama and gave three months of faithful, very successful and too zealous work, planting the Gospel standard and gaining souls at almost every service. Soon they were both stricken down with the dreaded Panama fever. Their courage and faith did not forsake them in the face of danger and death. A letter written January 12th records the death of the husband. Our sister returned as soon as she could rally from the fever, and prepared at once, by further studies, to go once more, this time to India. In seven months' time, November, 1879, she was under appointment, and sailed for India with Rev. G. I. Stone and wife to engage in the Taylor-Thoburn work in the South India Conference. She was engaged there as teacher in the girls' school at Calcutta. In April, 1881, Miss Fanny Sparks secured her services for the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society at Bareily, India, and while there she met Rev. Orimal Shreves, who had entered the work in India in 1879, and they were married October 6th, 1881. They resided at Bombay, where he was pastor till the December Conference, when they were appointed to Poonah, where they remained two years. She was especially useful and very successful there in the work among the native women and girls who came for instruction to the parsonage. They were next appointed to Madras, where they remained eighteen months, when they were compelled, to their great sorrow, to return to America, Brother Shreves' health being broken.

To them were born, at Poonah, Marilla, and Ruth came to bless their home at Madras.

After their return they labored together at Swanton, the birthplace of little Melville, Lakeside and Liberty Center. She passed through much suffering, but her spirit was ever full of confidence and joy in her Lord, the God and rock of her salvation.

The last weeks of her life were spent in song, the last days in anticipation of her departure. She sang "We're going home to-morrow," and the night before her departure, the "Gates Ajar," "For me, for me, was left ajar for me," and at 3 A. M., March 25th, shortly before she passed out from the knowledge of earthly things, her lips broke forth in her last earthly note in that sweet song of Christian confidence and holy trust:

"Jesus, lover of my soul,
Let me to thy bosom fly."

She sang also the second stanza 'ere her voice ceased:

"All my trust on thee is stayed,
All my help from thee I bring;
Cover my defenseless head
With the shadow of thy wing."

Thus passed away, at the early age of thirty-two years, this lovely sainted Christian missionary, wife and mother, in full hope of immortality and eternal life.

"So fades the Summer cloud away;
So sinks the gale when storms are o'er;
So gently shuts the eye of day;
So dies the wave along the shore."

She bore the cross. She wears the crown. The funeral services were held at Liberty Center, Brothers J. W. Miller, N. S. Brackney, J. H. Bethards and P. P. Pope making brief addresses, and many other ministers being present. Her body sleeps in the cemetery at Liberty Center, awaiting the resurrection of the just.

P. P. POPE.

CONSTITUTION OF THE SUPERANNUATED PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

ARTICLE I. This Society shall be called "The Superannuated Preachers' Aid Society of the Central Ohio Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church."

ARTICLE II. The object of this Society shall be to raise and maintain a fund, the proceeds of which shall be paid annually to the Conference Board of Stewards to supplement the beneficiary funds of the Conference.

ARTICLE III. The members of the Central Ohio Conference shall be members of this Society, and every member holding an Effective relation to the Conference shall pay to the Society the sum of one dollar annually, or the sum of ten dollars at one time. Any other person may become a member of this Society by the payment of two dollars annually, or a life member by the payment of twenty-five dollars at one time. Any person may become a life manager of this Society by the payment of one hundred dollars. Notes payable at any period not to exceed five years from date, may be received from life members or life managers; provided, however, that no note shall be received for less than twenty-five dollars.

ARTICLE IV. There shall be a Board of twelve trustees, six ministers and six laymen; of whom four shall serve for one year, four for two years, and four for three years; and all vacancies occurring by expiration of office shall be filled for three years, and other vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired portion of such term of office. The trustees and life managers present at the annual meeting shall elect from their body a president, vice-president, a secretary and a treasurer, who shall serve for the term of one year, until their successors are chosen, and these officers, with the trustees and life managers, shall constitute a Board of Control to manage the affairs of the Society, and to fill all vacancies occurring in any of the offices in the interim of Conference. The treasurer, before entering upon his office, shall give satisfactory bond and security to the Board of Control.

ARTICLE V. The annual meeting of this Society shall be held on the evening preceding the opening of Conference, at which time the election of trustees shall be held, and full reports shall be made of the financial condition of the Society.

ARTICLE VI. These Articles of Association may be altered or amended at the annual meeting of the Society by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

G.

CONSTITUTION OF THE CONFERENCE EDUCATIONAL SOCIETY.

ARTICLE I. This organization shall be known as "The Central Ohio Conference Educational Society."

ARTICLE II. The object of this Society shall be to solicit and secure funds for the interest of the educational institutions under the patronage of this Conference.

ARTICLE III. All members of the Conference shall be considered members of this Society.

ARTICLE IV. The officers of this Society shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, to hold their respective offices for one year, and until their successors are appointed.

ARTICLE V. These officers, together with six additional members, chosen as above, shall constitute a Board of Control, whose duty it shall be to advise and co-operate with the agent and pastors in forming auxiliary educational societies in the several Charges, to fix the salary of the agent and audit his accounts, to provide for an Educational Anniversary to be held during the session of Conference, and to circulate educational intelligence, and in other practicable ways to promote the object of the Society in the interim of the Conference.

ARTICLE VI. All notes, subscriptions and cash shall be deposited with the Treasurer, and shall be held for final disposition when not designated by the donors, subject to the action of this Society in annual session.

H.

FINANCIAL PLAN.

WHEREAS, The Discipline authorizes each Conference to adopt a Financial Plan, this Conference, following the Disciplinary suggestions, resolves:

I. For the Stations. 1. In order to raise the amounts necessary for the allowances of the Effective ministers, and for the contingent expenses of the Charge, the Stewards of each station shall, at the beginning of the year, estimate the amount needed monthly or weekly, as they may elect, and apportion the same among all the members who are able to pay, according to their ability.

2. It shall be the duty of the Stewards to see each one to whom an appointment has been made, and report to him the sum which, in their judgment, he ought to pay, and let him, if he consent, assume his apportionment by his own signature in a book provided for that purpose.

3 The Stewards shall appoint one of their number treasurer, whose duty it shall be to keep an individual account with each contributor of all the pledges and contributions, and pay over the dues, under the direction of the Stewards, to the preachers authorized to receive them. And in order to avoid mistakes and give information, he shall make a quarterly or monthly report to the Society of the condition of the finances, by reading the names of contributors, with the amounts paid, and deficiencies of each.

4. The Stewards shall collect the dues monthly or weekly, as they may elect, and pay over the same to the treasurer.

II. For the Circuits. The plan for the Circuits shall be the same as in the stations, with this exception: there shall be a Financial Committee in each Society, composed of the Stewards and leaders of that Society; one of whom shall be chosen treasurer, who shall make his report quarterly before the Society to which he belongs.

I.

Brethren, while, during the next year, we shall give all collections due attention, let us be determined that this one, which means support to the fathers and mothers of the itinerancy in the years of their infirmity and need, shall have no deficiencies.

The Board further recommends that every Quarterly Conference Committee, in its certificate to the Stewards, observe the instructions in the Discipline, and report in detail the assets, income and expense of each claimant.

WM. W. LANCE, Secretary.
